American University of Beirut

2007–08 Application for
Special and Visiting Students
Application Instructions for Special and Visiting Students

We are delighted that you are planning to apply to the American University of Beirut (AUB). Please use this application if you are not applying as a degree candidate and are applying for a short-term of study. If you wish to apply to an AUB degree program, please inquire through AUB’s New York office, through the Office of Admissions on the AUB campus in Beirut, or consult AUB’s web page at www.aub.edu.lb/admissions. Please read carefully the descriptions of each category, “Special Student Not Working for a Degree” and “Visiting Student,” then indicate on the application for which category you are applying. You may apply to only one category.

Applicants for either category should submit the following:

- A completed application form
- An official copy of your most recent secondary/high school or college/university transcript
- Adviser/professor/supervisor recommendation form(s): two recommendations are requested for visiting students, one from an academic or study abroad adviser, one from a current professor. Please duplicate the form supplied here for a second recommender.
- A photocopy of passport or ID
- An application fee of LL75,000 (US$50)

Non-Degree Undergraduate and Graduate Admission

A special student not working for a degree

- may normally take up to 16 credits per semester;
- must have at least high school diploma, school leaving certificate, government secondary school certificate or higher level of education;
- credits taken at AUB may be considered toward AUB degrees if the student reapplies for admission as a regular student, and is accepted based on the admission criteria;
- must meet the English Language Proficiency Requirement (ELPR) (see below). Exemption is given to candidates whose native language is English, or to those who have completed two years of higher education with English as the primary language of instruction, or to those who are enrolling ONLY in Arabic language courses.

A visiting student (junior year abroad or who may continue his/her education at AUB)

- may normally take up to 16 credits per regular semester; graduate students may take up to 12 credits per regular semester;
- must have completed the equivalent of the sophomore year in good academic standing;
- credits transferable to an AUB degree program if student petitions for regular student status; may not be applicable to graduate students;
- must meet the ELPR (see below). Exemption is given to candidates whose native language is English, or to those who have completed two years of higher education with English as the primary language of instruction.

Applications submitted after the deadlines below will be considered; however there is no guarantee that the following notification dates will remain the same.
