Spotlight

CEC Fall 2013-14: Expand Beyond Your Potentials

The Continuing Education Center provides ambitious individuals with the knowledge and competencies which are now essential components of the talent management initiatives in the strategic plans of most companies. Register now! READ MORE

News

AUBMC medical researchers work to unravel the mysteries behind breast cancer in young women

More than half of women with breast cancer in Lebanon are under the age of 50, according to new studies by medical researchers at AUBMC. READ MORE

AUB professor etches Beirut’s name in chemistry history

Beirut has too often made headline news, either as a war zone or as a party capital of the Arab world. But AUB Chemistry Professor Makhluf Haddadin wants to make sure that Beirut’s name is also tied to scientific research. READ MORE

Davis-Beirut chemical reaction

Annahar newspaper reported on the Davis-Beirut Reaction born out of a collaboration between AUB Professor Makhluf Haddadin and UC Davis Professor Mark J. Kurth. READ MORE

'Revolutions, Constitutions and Counter-revolutions: A Middle East Update'

IFI Director Rami Khouri gave a talk entitled "Revolutions, Constitutions and Counter-revolutions: A Middle East Update," at Harvard Kennedy School’s Belfer Center for Science and International Affairs, on October 8, 2013. READ MORE

'EMME study on earthquakes in the Middle East includes Lebanon'

Events

Upcoming events

- Exhibit on AUB Student Magazines: 1898-1946, Oct. 7-31, Jafet READ MORE
- CAMES lecture "Civil Society After Saddam: Oil Unions and Democracy in Iraq," Oct. 14, 6pm, West Hall, Aud. B READ MORE
- PALMTESSA DUOBANDA JAZZ CONCERT, Oct. 16, 8pm, Assembly Hall READ MORE
- "Patience Prescribed," by Charbel Rouhana, Oct. 18, 8pm, Assembly Hall READ MORE
- University for Seniors lecture “Baroque Monsters,” led by Matteo, Oct. 22, 4:30pm, Bathish Aud. READ MORE
- CCECS and Wellness workshop "Work Life Balance," Oct. 22, 7pm, West Hall, 310 READ MORE
- PSPA Brown Bag "Germany after the Elections," Oct. 24, 2pm, Nicely Hall, 322 READ MORE
- WAAAUB Quiz Night, Oct. 24, 7pm, Blue Note Café READ MORE
- CAMES "The Revolution is (Not) a Story: New Writing from Egypt," Dec. 9, 5pm, West Hall, Aud. B READ MORE
- CASAR 5th International Conference: "Transnational American Studies," Annahar newspaper interviewed AUB's Professor Elias Ata on the EMME study which highlighted new findings in Lebanon in regards to knowing the distribution of damage to buildings. READ MORE

'Shock value, sexism and superficiality: Lebanon's advertising problem'
The Daily Star newspaper interviewed AUB's Professor Jad Melki on sexism in advertising which is a big problem in Lebanon due to lack of regulations. READ MORE

'Charbel Rouhana inspired by the spirit of the teacher'
Al Akhbar newspaper reported on the Zaki Nassif Music Program Festival concert entitled "Patience Prescribed," by Charbel Rouhana, on October 18, 2013, at AUB. READ MORE

FAFS researchers promote no-tilling for higher agricultural yields at lower cost
Annahar newspaper reported on a research conducted by the Faculty of Agricultural and Food Sciences that promotes no-tilling which reduces land degradation, while increasing farmers' profits and lowering production costs. READ MORE

'High birth costs force Syrians back home'
Al Jazeera English interviewed AUB's Dr. Fouad Mohammad Fouad on why many Syrian refugees are going back home due to the costs of giving birth in a Lebanese hospital. READ MORE

Safety & Security Information - October 14, 2013
READ MORE

Announcements

- AUB video contest READ MORE
- Engage in a project to implement university student lead drugs and alcohol initiatives READ MORE
- Leave Your Mark special art competition to raise awareness of the Brave Heart Fund READ MORE
- Erasmus Mundus - ELEMENT project, deadline Oct. 14 READ MORE
- CHSC open on second day of Adha, Oct. 16, 10am-6pm
- AUB student elections on Nov. 5 READ MORE
- AUB Zaki Nassif Program Music Festival READ MORE
- AUB Award for Excellence in Teaching READ MORE
- CCCL's "Home Sweet Hope" READ MORE
- Samir & Claude Abillama Eco-entrepreneurship Award READ MORE
- Cities Page new Jadaliyya platform for urban life and space READ MORE
- Research Assistant position at IFI READ MORE
- Organic Chemistry Competition READ MORE
- Register for Online Community Management course, Nov. 15-21 READ MORE
- Register for certification courses in Fitness Education READ MORE
- Pool closed 12-3pm on Saturdays until Nov. 9 READ MORE
- Global Energy Essay Contest 2013 READ MORE