Instructions for Applying to Graduate Study

To be eligible for admission to graduate study an applicant must hold a university degree preceded by a secondary school certificate recognized by the Lebanese Ministry of Education as equivalent to the Lebanese Baccalaureate Part II, and recognized by the University. The applicant must also have an average, in the field of his or her intended graduate study or related fields, acceptable to the appropriate faculty graduate committee. Applicants other than AUB graduates must meet the English Language Proficiency Requirement (ELPR) described in the 2007–08 Catalogue.

A student may apply to one or more faculties and to one or more majors by completing just one application form, Form 4, with supporting materials as outlined below. The application fee is LL75,000 or US$50. Applicants may apply to a maximum of three choices of programs regardless of the faculty.

Deadlines for Receiving Applications for Admission/Notification Dates

Applications for graduate study should be sent to the Office of Admissions as early as possible and not later than the deadlines stated below. The decisions made by April 1 deadline the appropriate graduate committees will be communicated to applicants in writing by the Office of Admissions. Applications received by the April 30 deadline will be considered for Graduate Assistantship (GA), applications received after this deadline will be considered for GA pending availability.

For admission to	Deadline	Notification Date
Summer 2008 semester (except FAS, FM, FHS, and OSB)	April 30, 2008	By mid June 2008

Dear Applicant,

We are pleased that you plan to apply for graduate study at the American University of Beirut and hope that you will find the application process a relatively straightforward one.

There are several important aspects of our admissions procedures to which I would like to call your attention:

- The deadlines for applying, the dates by which students are notified of admission, and the date by which students must accept admission are earlier than they have been in the past, as detailed on the "Instructions for Applying" on the facing page.
- Students who decide to enroll will be asked to make a commitment to enroll by an earlier date.

Let me call your special attention to the Admissions section in the 2007-08 Graduate Catalogue, and to the graduate studies section for each faculty and department to which you intend to apply.

We look forward to receiving your application. Please do not hesitate to write or call the Office of Admissions with any questions you may have about applying or your preparation for admission.

Sincerely,

Salim Kanaan, PhD
Director of Admissions
