

The Department of History & Archaeology
American University of Beirut

cordially invites you to a lecture titled

“Refugees and Asylum Seekers in Ottoman Territory in the Early Modern Period”

by

Dr. Suraiya Faroqhi

Dr. Suraiya Faroqhi, is Professor of History Ludwig- Maximilians University, Munich (retired). Prof. Faroqhi has published extensively on the Ottoman Empire; among her more recent books are: Stories of Ottoman Men and Women; Establishing Status, Establishing Control (2002); Subjects of the Sultan; Culture and Daily Life in the Ottoman Empire (2005); and The Ottoman Empire: A Short History (2008). Together with Rechat Kasaba she is the editor of, and contributor to, the prestigious Cambridge History of Turkey, (4 Volumes)

Thursday, December 11, 2008
College Hall, Auditorium B1
5:00 P.M.