Development of Evidence-Based Nursing in an Interdisciplinary Era: Achievements and Prospects

International Research Conference

October 6 - 8, 2016
Issam Fares Hall

Program

Thursday October 6

4:00 - 6:00 pm  Keynote Address: Dr. Judith Shamian, President, International Council of Nurses The Impact of Interprofessional Education and Practice on the Nursing Profession and Discipline: the Challenges and the Benefits

6:00 - 8:00 pm  Reception

Friday October 7

8:30 - 9:00 am  Registration

9:00 - 10:30 am  Health systems and Outcomes Research
Moderator: Dr. Huda Hujier
Empowering Nurses for Leadership: Transforming Health Care

9:00 - 9:30 am  Dr. Bobby Berkowitz, President, American Academy of Nursing

9:30 - 10:00 am  Dr. Judith Shamian, President, International Council of Nurses
Health Employment and Economic Growth: UN’s High Level Commission’s Perspective

10:00 - 10:30 am  Dr. Nihad Dumit, President, Order of Nurses in Lebanon
Nursing Workforce Research in Lebanon

10:30 - 11:00 am  Coffee break and poster presentation

11:00 am - 12:30 pm  Interdisciplinary Programs of Research
Moderator: Dr. Laila Farhood

11:00 - 11:30 am  Dr. Martha Hill, Dean Emerita, Johns Hopkins University School of Nursing
An Interdisciplinary Approach to Improving Hypertension Care and Control among Young Black Men: A 5-Year Clinical Trial

11:30 am - 12:00 pm  Dr. William Holzheimer, Dean, Rutgers University School of Nursing
Developing a Program of Research

12:00 - 12:30 pm  Dr. Huda Hujier, Director, Hariri School of Nursing, American University of Beirut
Interdisciplinary Pain and Palliative Care Research in Lebanon

12:30 - 2:00 pm  Lunch break

Saturday October 8

8:30 - 9:00 am  Registration

9:00 - 10:30 am  Reducing the Burden of Non Communicable Diseases
Moderator: Dr. Gladys Husein

9:00 - 9:30 am  Dr. Patricia Davidson, Dean, Johns Hopkins University School of Nursing
Meeting the Challenges of Non Communicable Diseases in Policy, Practice, Education and Research

9:30 - 10:00 am  Dr. Paula Meek, Professor, College of Nursing, University of Colorado, Denver
Self Management in Chronic Illness

10:00 - 10:30 am  Dr. Samar Noureddine, Professor, Hariri School of Nursing, American University of Beirut
Cardiovascular Risk Reduction in Lebanon

10:30 - 11:00 am  Coffee break and poster presentations

11:00 am - 12:30 pm  Health Care of Older Adults
Moderator: Dr. Dina Maal

11:00 - 11:30 am  Dr. Khalil Sukkar, Facility Manager, Copin Centre, Royal Free Caucasus Ltd, Melbourne, Australia
Models of Care for Older Adults

11:30 am - 12:00 pm  Dr. Ramzi Hajjar, Associate Professor of Clinical Medicine, Faculty of Medicine, American University of Beirut
Interprofessional Collaboration in the Care of Older Adults with Dementia

12:00 - 12:30 pm  Dr. Hala Darwish, Associate Professor, Hariri School of Nursing, American University of Beirut
Protecting cognitive Function

12:30 - 2:00 pm  Lunch break

3:00 - 4:00 pm  Round Table on Global Health
Moderator: Dr. Nihad Dumit

3:30 - 5:00 pm  Dr. Anahid Kulwicki, Dean, University of Massachusetts Boston College of Nursing and Health Sciences
Interprofessional Education

5:00 - 5:30 pm  Dr. Michael Clinton, Professor, Hariri School of Nursing, American University of Beirut
Conceptualizing and Measuring Nursing Phenomena

5:30 - 6:00 pm  Closing
Moderator: Dr. Samar Noureddine

Dr. Martha Hill, Dean Emerita, Johns Hopkins University School of Nursing
Global Leaders in Nursing: Challenges and Opportunities

6:00 pm  Gala dinner