

Designing Search Strategies for Systematic Reviews

Registration fee: $150.00 per attendee
A registration fee of $100.00 will be charged for individuals with a valid AUB ID.

Location: Olayan School of Business (OSB)
Lab 206 - AUB
Date: Saturday, May 21, 2016

Please fill out the online registration form: Register Here

Deadline for registration and payment is Monday, May 16, 2016. Places are limited.

Overview This workshop will help audience to develop skills needed for designing and reporting a highly sensitive search strategy for a systematic review. This workshop will include interactive presentation with live demonstration and hands-on searching.

Agenda

Saturday, May 21, 2016

Time	Topic
08:00 – 08:30	REGISTRATION
08:30 – 08:50	Introduction/value of medical information
08:50 – 09:20	Basic computer search options
09:20 – 10:00	Medline OVID basics and hands-on
10:00 – 10:30	Medline searching for systematic reviews and hands-on
10:30 – 10:45	COFFEE BREAK
10:45 – 11:30	PubMed searching and hands-on
11:30 – 12:00	Resources beyond Medline/PubMed
12:00 – 12:30	Mapping strategies across resources
12:30 – 13:00	LUNCH BREAK
13:00 – 13:45	Grey literature
13:45 – 14:15	Citation analysis tools
14:15 – 14:40	Citation management tools
14:40 – 15:00	Transparent reporting
15:00	Wrap-up and Evaluation

Who will benefit?

All Researchers interested in conducting Systematic Reviews.

About the speaker

Aida Farha, BS is the medical information specialist at AUB and has more than 35 years of experience in this field. Ms Farha has many publications and presented many conferences and workshops about computerized bibliographic and effective search strategies.

For more information contact the Continuing Medical Education Office at cmeoffice@aub.edu.lb or 01 350 000 ext. 4718/4879

Testimonials

“Important information about research and search engine, very beneficial”

“Added value to be used in my work setting”

“A very friendly positive presenter”