In a distinguished career spanning over a quarter century, Ambassador Jan Eliasson of Sweden served most recently as Special Envoy of the United Nations Secretary-General for Darfur. From 2005-2006, Eliasson headed the United Nations General Assembly, and before that was the first UN Under Secretary-General for Humanitarian Affairs, where he was involved in Somalia, Sudan, Mozambique and the Balkans. He also served as Minister for Foreign Affairs in Sweden. From 1980-1986, he was part of the UN mediation missions in the war between Iran and Iraq, headed by the late Prime Minister Olof Palme. In 1993-1994, he served as mediator in the Nagorno Karabakh conflict for the Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe (OSCE). He has lectured in Swedish universities and around the world on mediation, conflict resolution and UN reform.
