

AUB American University of Beirut
الجامعة الأمريكية في بيروت

ISSAM FARES INSTITUTE FOR PUBLIC POLICY
AND INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS

IFI's Research, Advocacy and Public Policy-making in the Arab world

cordially invites you to its inaugural

IFI Director's Policy Forum

Tarik Yousef

Dean, Dubai School of Government

Non-Resident Senior Public Policy Scholar at the Issam Fares Institute

Dubai and the Dubai School of Government after the economic crisis:
What we have learned,
how we are responding

Thursday 22 July 2010 | 1:00 - 2:30 pm | Conference Room 314, College Hall, AUB

Dr. Tarik M. Yousef is the founding Dean of the Dubai School of Government, and a leading authority on the economies of the Arab world. He received his Ph.D. in economics from Harvard University, specializing in development economics and economic history. His current research interests include the dynamics of labor markets, the political economy of policy reform, and development policies in oil-exporting countries. His research and policy experience includes working as an economist at the Middle East Department of the International Monetary Fund, Visiting Professor in the Middle East and North Africa Region of the World Bank, and Senior Advisor for the Millennium Project at the United Nations.

He is a Senior Fellow at the Wolfensohn Center for Development at the Brookings Institution, a Senior Fellow at the Belfer Center for Science and International Affairs at Harvard University's Kennedy School of Government, and the Non-resident Senior Public Policy Scholar at the Issam Fares Institute.