The American University of Beirut Faculty of Medicine is seeking a recognized academic leader for the position of Professor and Chairperson of the Department of Experimental Pathology, Immunology and Microbiology.

Successful candidate must be experienced teacher, administrator and have evidence of scholarly activities and achievements in education and research.

Excellent opportunities exist for faculty development, research and teaching. The compensation is competitive and the position offers excellent benefits.

Applicants may direct inquiries or send a letter of interest or nomination to br02@aub.edu.lb by September 30, 2015. Full application must include letter of interest, curriculum vitae, and the names of at least four references.

Mohamed H. Sayegh, MD.
Vice President for Medical Affairs
The Raja N. Khuri Dean
Faculty of Medicine

The American University of Beirut is an Affirmative Action, Equal Opportunity Employer.