June 15, 2016

Dear AUB Community,

Once more, we call upon you to send us nominations of candidates for the Honorary Doctorates for June 2017.

AUB grants an honorary degree to distinguished individuals who, over the course of their careers, have made enduring contributions in the fields of academia, public or humanitarian service, arts and culture, business and philanthropy, or the media. An honorary degree may be awarded based on a record of scholarly excellence in a field of study in the sciences or humanities, artistic creativity, leadership, humanitarian service, or concern for the public good, as well as a demonstrated commitment to the humane and educational values that exemplify the mission of the University.

We would like to reiterate that nominees may not be current AUB trustees, current employees of AUB, or active politicians (leaders of political parties, members of parliament, members of governments, and heads of state).

For complete guidelines on the nomination process and what should be included with the nomination, please check the President’s Office website: http://www.aub.edu.lb/doctorates/Pages/index.aspx

Nominations should be submitted by July 31, 2016, at the latest, to:
