The Department of English offers two graduate degree programs: the MA in English literature and the MA in English language.

Graduate Program

The department offers two graduate programs, one in literature and one in language. General requirements for graduate study are found in the Admissions section in this catalogue.

The requirements for an MA degree in English consist of 21 credit hours in courses numbered 300 or above, successful completion of a comprehensive examination, and a thesis along with any additional prerequisite courses determined by the department to make up for deficiencies in undergraduate preparation.

Students working for an MA degree in English language must take ENGL 301, 327, 341 or 342, and 345. Education 227 (Statistics in Education) must be taken as a non-credit pass/fail prerequisite. In addition, language graduates must take one of the following three graduate courses in the Department of Education: 324, 325, and 328. Two additional elective English language graduate courses from among those offered in the department must be taken.

Students working for the degree of MA in the Teaching of English as a Foreign Language (TEFL) should refer to the Department of Education catalogue section.

ENGL 301 Introduction to Bibliography and Research Methods 3.0; 3 cr.
An introduction to bibliography and research methodologies in the study of language or literary studies. Annually.

ENGL 302 British Literature Before 1800 3.0; 3 cr.
A course whose topic varies from semester to semester. The topic, however, is always chosen from material written before 1800. Annually.

ENGL 303 British Literature After 1800 3.0; 3 cr.
A course whose topic varies from semester to semester, depending on the interests of the professor and the needs of the students. The topic is always chosen from material written after 1800. Annually.

ENGL 304 American Literature 3.0; 3 cr.
A course whose topic varies from semester to semester but always focuses on some aspect of American literature. Annually.

ENGL 305 Graduate Tutorial in Literature 3.0; 3 cr.
A course offered to students on an individual basis. The topic can include any aspect of British or American literature. Annually.

ENGL 306 Selected Topics in Literature 3.0; 3 cr.
A course that addresses aspects of British or American literature or literary theory that are not typically addressed in other courses offered by the department. Topics may vary from semester to semester. Annually.

ENGL 325 World Literature 3.0; 3 cr.
A course whose topic varies from semester to semester. It deals with aspects of non-English and non-American literature written in English. Annually.

ENGL 326 Advanced Translation Theory and Practice 3.0; 3 cr.
A close examination of major translation theories, both traditional and linguistic, and an application of these theories to the practice of translation, both literary and technical, in Arabic and in English. Annually.

ENGL 327 Sociolinguistics 3.0; 3 cr.
A course intended to provide an in-depth analysis of the issues related to the study of the interaction between language and society. This course covers such topics as geographical and social dialects, multilingualism, language and gender, ethnography of speaking, discourse analysis, language planning, and language attitudes. Annually.

ENGL 329 Grammatical Studies in Old and Middle English Literature 3.0; 3 cr.
A close reading and grammatical examination of selected texts in the original. Exact content to be determined by the instructor. Annually.
ENGL 341  Phonology
A survey of theories of phonological description including phonemics, distinctive features, and generative phonology; an application of these theories to actual linguistic data from various languages with concentration by each student on one specific problem.  Annually.

ENGL 342  Theoretical Linguistics
A study of readings in advanced grammar that have contributed to the formulation of theories of language description; e.g., transformational grammar, stratificational grammar, generative semantics, pragmatics, government, and binding.  Annually.

ENGL 344  Graduate Tutorial in Linguistics
A tutorial offered to students on an individual basis. The topics can include any aspect of the study of linguistics that both instructor and student agree on.  Annually.

ENGL 345  Language Acquisition
A survey of studies in first and second language acquisition. Emphasis is placed on stages of acquisition and the strategies used by children in acquiring their native language. Comparisons between first and second language acquisition are drawn with implication for language teaching.  Annually.

ENGL 346  Issues in Applied Linguistics
A course whose topic varies from semester to semester. It deals with major topics and issues in language study such as multilingualism and multiculturalism, assessment and evaluation, language and education, and intercultural communication.  Annually.

ENGL 399  MA Thesis
9 cr.
