Undergraduate Programs

Psychology

Admission to the psychology program requires a grade of 70 or more in PSYC 102 or PSYC 202, and a minimum grade of 70 in ENGL 203 and ENGL 204. For purposes of meeting departmental admission requirements, students are not permitted to take PSYC 102 or PSYC 202 more than twice. Prospective majors who obtain a grade below 60 in PSYC 102 or PSYC 202 will not be permitted to take the course a second time for the purpose of meeting the departmental admission requirements. Requirements for majors include PSYC 102 or PSYC 202, PSYC 213, PSYC 223, PSYC 227, and PSYC 293. In addition to these required courses, the student must select seven courses from the following: PSYC 211, PSYC 215, PSYC 217, PSYC 219, PSYC 221, PSYC 225, PSYC 229, PSYC 231, PSYC 233, PSYC 235, PSYC 237, PSYC 239, PSYC 241, PSYC 243, PSYC 247, and PSYC 251. In addition to these required courses, the student must complete CMPS 206 or EDUC 219. If exempted from CMPS 206, students should take 3 credits in sciences and math numbered 200 or above.

A minor in psychology requires 15 credits: PSYC 102 or PSYC 202, PSYC 227, plus three electives from PSYC 211–251 except PSYC 213, PSYC 223, and PSYC 243.

A cognitive science minor requires 15 credits. PSYC 251 is required. PSYC 251 cannot be counted as a psychology course for the purpose of this requirement. The remaining 12 credits must be chosen from the following courses: PSYC 219, 221, 227, 233, 235, and 247; PHIL 221, 222, 223, 257, 258;
ENGL 227, 230, 232, 246; EDUC 215, 221, 225, 290, 290F; CMPS 287; and BIOL 243, 290F, 290AF-1, 290T-1, on condition that the 12 credits chosen span three of the five disciplines. Only 3 credits of the 15 credits taken for the minor may count toward the student's major.

PSYC 102  Freshman Psychology
3.0; 3 cr.
An introduction to the principles and concepts of psychology to prepare the student for majoring in psychology.

Sociology-Anthropology

Admission to the sociology-anthropology program requires a minimum grade of 70 in ENGL 203 and ENGL 204, and a grade of 70 or more in one of the following: SOAN 101, SOAN 201, SOAN 203, or SOAN 204. If admission to SOAN is based on SOAN 101, an additional SOAN or any social science course is required. For purposes of meeting departmental admission requirements, students are not permitted to take SOAN 101 or SOAN 201 more than twice. Prospective majors who obtain a grade below 60 in SOAN 201 are not permitted to take the course for a second time for the purpose of meeting the departmental admission requirements. Requirements for the BA program include SOAN 101 or SOAN 201 or SOAN 203 or SOAN 204, SOAN 228, SOAN 210, SOAN 211, SOAN 212, SOAN 213, SOAN 214, and a seminar from SOAN 240–243, 250–252, plus 15 additional credit hours, as well as a course in computer literacy (such as CMPS 206 or EDUC 219). If exempted from CMPS 206, students should take 3 credits in sciences and math numbered 200 or above.

The sociology-anthropology program offers three areas of specialization: anthropology, communication, and sociology. For a minor in anthropology the requirements are SOAN 203 or SOAN 212, SOAN 222 or SOAN 225, and SOAN 221 or SOAN 227, plus two electives from SOAN 212, SOAN 214, SOAN 220–227, SOAN 232, SOAN 240–242 and 250–252. For a minor in communication, the requirements are SOAN 205, SOAN 228, and SOAN 229, plus two electives from communication courses including the following: SOAN 204, SOAN 206, SOAN 230, SOAN 231, SOAN 233, SOAN 234, SOAN 235, SOAN 236, and SOAN 243. For a minor in sociology the requirements are SOAN 101 or SOAN 201, SOAN 213, and SOAN 214, plus two electives from the following: SOAN 210, SOAN 220, SOAN 222, SOAN 223, SOAN 224, SOAN 225, SOAN 232, and SOAN 240–242. Students who wish to undertake a master’s degree in sociology are strongly advised to take SOAN 210 as an elective in their minor.

SOAN 101 Freshman Sociology 3.0; 3 cr.
An introduction to the principles and concepts of sociology to prepare students for majoring in sociology. Students who take this course can not receive credit for SOAN 201. Each semester.

SOAN 103 Reading Other Cultures 3.0; 3 cr.
An introduction to the study of other cultures drawing on film, ethnographic case studies, and topical debates. This course presents basic concepts in the comparative study of culture, methods of observing and interpreting other cultures, a sense of how knowledge about other cultures is constructed, and tools to develop a critical awareness of one’s own cultural traditions. Annually.

SOAN 201 Introduction to Sociology 3.0; 3 cr.
An introduction to the study of social phenomena. Basic concepts, principles, and methods common to the study of society are employed for the analysis of structure and change in society. This course includes the structure and origin of some basic human institutions such as family, kinship, religion, and language. A student who has received credit for SOAN 101 can not receive credit for SOAN 201. Each semester.

SOAN 203 Introduction to Anthropology 3.0; 3 cr.
An introduction to anthropology encompassing the traditional subfields of cultural, physical, linguistic, and archaeological anthropology. The course prepares students for further study in anthropology. Each Semester.
SOAN 204  Introduction to the Communication Process  3.0; 3 cr.
An introduction to the study of human communication processes. The course draws upon relevant concepts in social psychology and depends heavily on class group projects, usually in the form of simulations of communication situations.  Annually.

SOAN 205  Basic News Reporting  3.0; 3 cr.
An introduction to basic news writing and editing for newspapers and magazines. This course teaches students the fundamental elements of the simple news story such as headlines, leads, and body. It also covers reporting techniques and processes relevant to the coverage of political, economic, social, and cultural developments.  Each semester.

SOAN 206  Advanced News Reporting  3.0; 3 cr.
The course introduces the student to simple and complex journalistic investigations of the role of government and business in society as well as their interrelationships. Annually.

SOAN 210  Research Methods  3.0; 3 cr.
A survey of the basic techniques and designs of social research, including both quantitative and qualitative methods, the relationship between micro and macro approaches to society, and the interplay between theory and research.  Alternate years.

SOAN 211  Analysis of Social Data  3.0; 3 cr.
A survey of basic statistical techniques used in analyzing social and behavioral data. Students participate in the analysis of research data by applying various analytical techniques using computer packages. They will also interpret research findings and write a research report.  Annually.

SOAN 212  Social Anthropology  3.0; 3 cr.
A general introduction to the theories and methods of anthropology with special attention to the transformation of traditional society; this course examines the primary institutions of family, economy, religion, and politics in relation to technological change and modernization.  Annually.

SOAN 213  Sociological Theory  3.0; 3 cr.
A survey of some of the major theoretical perspectives and critical issues of classical and contemporary sociological theory. Special focus is placed on four interrelated dimensions: 1) the nature of sociological theory and its intellectual sources, 2) its classic tradition, particularly the legacies of Marx, Durkheim, and Weber, 3) an exploration of salient contemporary perspectives, 4) the emergence of new theories and/or directions, such as post-modernity and global sociology.
Alternate years.

SOAN 214  Arab Culture and Society  3.0; 3 cr.
A study of contemporary Arab society: its complexity, diversity, and internal dynamics. This course considers social structures, social groups, cultural patterns, and processes and agents of social and cultural change, and examines current debates on major issues in Arab culture and society.
Annually.

SOAN 215  Anthropology of America  3.0; 3 cr.
A critical examination of conceptions of mainstream or dominant American culture. Using ethnographic case material, the course explores cultural systems and social structures in the contemporary United States, offering an introduction to anthropological approaches to the study of complex societies.  Alternate years.
SOAN 216    Hands-On Anthropology  3.0; 3 cr.
An introduction to the techniques, theories, and debates concerning ethnographic fieldwork. What do anthropologists actually do and what is unique about anthropological research? This course explores the politics and ethics of research, kinds of observation, effective interviewing strategies, note-taking, ways of ‘coding’ or indexing information, data analysis, and approaches to writing.
Alternate years.

SOAN 217    Anthropology of the Body  3.0; 3 cr.
An examination of cultural and historical variations in perceptions and experiences of the human body. The course focuses on the ways the human body is culturally constructed and socially experienced, through case studies of labor, sport, health, illness, sexuality, gender, display, and religious ritual.

SOAN 220    City and Society  3.0; 3 cr.
An introduction to some of the leading conceptual and methodological perspectives for the study of transformations in human settlements. The course explores issues associated with the evolution of cities, their spatial and cultural features, and the social production of informal space and the gendering of space. Changing trends and patterns in Third World urbanization are explored with special focus on the Arab World, global, and post-modern cities.
Alternate years.

SOAN 221    Political Anthropology  3.0; 3 cr.
A course examining concepts of power and authority and the evolution of the state from a comparative point of view. A special focus is placed on studies of leadership, law, bureaucracy, and state formation in both traditional and modern systems.
Alternate years.

SOAN 222    Family and Kinship  3.0; 3 cr.
The course examines, from a comparative perspective, different forms of family and kinship organization, their relation to production and systems of exchange. Special focus is placed on processes of initiation and reproduction, and cultural expression of relatedness.
Alternate years.

SOAN 223    Social Inequality: Conflict and Consensus  3.0; 3 cr.
The course explores theories of social inequality. It addresses issues such as class, status, and gender inequalities and points to sources of conflict and consensus. Arguments for and against equality are canvassed.
Alternate years.

SOAN 224    Sexuality and Society  3.0; 3 cr.
The course provides a comparative conceptual framework to explore the changing nature of sexuality in society. Special focus is placed on the social construction of sexual identities, sex and the body, the place of desire and the changing form of romantic love, erotica and pornography, the commodification of intimacy, sexual ethics and sexual prolifics in a globalized world. The course also focuses on the dynamics of male-female relations in Arab society.
Alternate years.

SOAN 225    Gender and Culture  3.0; 3 cr.
An examination of gender holistically and cross-culturally from a social-anthropological perspective. This course examines how meanings of sex variation are constructed and gender is performed by individuals and groups in different societies. It studies the roles of women and men in ritual, in economic and political systems, and in other social arenas.
Alternate years.
SOAN 226  Religion and Society
A course that examines the relationship between society and religion, including both formal institutions and informal processes, which deal with the supernatural. This course studies the origin and development of ritual and religious functions for both the individual and society.

Alternate years.

SOAN 227  Cultural Boundaries and Identities
Analysis of cultural boundaries and identities. A comparative study of ethnicity and other identity categories and related issues such as cultural hybridity and nationalism with emphasis on the Middle East.

Alternate years.

SOAN 228  Mass Media and Society
A survey of mass media institutions and an examination of the role of the mass media in society, including an introduction to basic principles and concepts as developed in the West and as applied in the Middle East.

Annually.

SOAN 229  Communication Theory
An overview of the ways in which mass communication has been viewed by social scientists and by practitioners, with a focus on the range of issues studied and questions raised, and the schools, approaches, and trends in the field.

Annually.

SOAN 230  Public Opinion
A general study of the nature of public opinion, and the interplay between psychological and socio-cultural processes in the formation and dissemination of public opinion. An attempt is also made to explore the impact of public opinion on media and socio-cultural change. Measurements of public opinion are also explored.

Alternate years.

SOAN 231  Communication Campaigns
A course that seeks to give students the opportunity to apply, in a strategically integrated manner, the concepts and procedures used in advertising and marketing research. Working in groups, students are required to plan and develop comprehensive marketing communications campaigns to promote social ideas or commercial items using numerous media and research techniques.

Annually.

SOAN 232  Conflict Analysis and Resolution
An overview of the field of conflict analysis and resolution. This course covers the history of conflict studies, theories of conflict, and methods of dispute resolution.

Annually.

SOAN 233  Persuasion in the Media Age
The course explores the nature of persuasion today and examines strategies for critically evaluating persuasive communication, stressing the importance of adapting persuasive messages to society’s cultural beliefs and values, as well as to the economic and social structures that govern the society. It aims at moving beyond traditional theories to improve the student’s understanding of how to respond to and evaluate persuasive communication in the era of communication technology.

Alternate years.

SOAN 234  Public Relations
The course introduces the student to the world of public relations through a strong emphasis on fundamentals, such as history and research. Emerging issues, such as technology, ethics, and the international aspects of public relations are considered through examining PR strategies, tactics, and case studies.

Alternate years.
SOAN 235  Advertising  3.0; 3 cr.
The course introduces the student to the core concepts and practices of advertising. It examines the impact of new media and research methods, with an emphasis on integrated communications and the role of ad agencies. Students learn how to assess the effectiveness of advertising, and how to create a successful ad campaign. Alternate years.

SOAN 236  The Electronic Media  3.0; 3 cr.
The course introduces the students to the history of the electronic media, examining the impact of the new media on communication. The course has an interdisciplinary nature, drawing on the expertise of AUB faculty in the fields of communication, science and technology, history, politics, and economics. Alternate years.

SOAN 240  Seminar in Human Rights and Cultural Differences  3.0; 3 cr.
A seminar that provides students with an introduction to the history, concepts, institutions, and applications of human rights. Although drawn mainly from a Western perspective, applications are canvassed from the Middle East as well. Discussions cover philosophical foundations of human rights law; discrimination, xenophobia, and racism; civil, political, social, and economic rights; women's rights; children's rights; rights of minorities and indigenous people; and migrant workers' rights. Alternate years.

SOAN 241  Seminar in the Sociology of Deviance  3.0; 3 cr.
The seminar explores the role of leading theoretical perspectives for understanding the changing meanings, nature, and forms of deviance in a cross-cultural context. Primary concern is to identify conceptual, methodological, moral, and political issues in the study of substantive social problems such as violent crime, alcoholism and drug abuse, prostitution, homosexuality, suicide, mental disorders, corporate crime, and other emerging forms of global deviance. Alternate years.

SOAN 242  Seminar in Globalization and Migration  3.0; 3 cr.
An introduction to a range of issues related to theories of migration with particular emphasis on the peculiarities of contemporary globalization. Theoretical considerations include assumptions and case studies from sociology, economics, political economy, and anthropology. Concepts such as network theory, transnationalism, and the international division of labor are used to illuminate issues such as citizenship and identity, refugees, forced migration, nationalism, and ethnicity as they relate to the migratory experience. Alternate years.

SOAN 243  Seminar in Communication  3.0; 3 cr.
An undergraduate seminar on the role of communication in society. The content areas may change. May be repeated for credit. Annually.

SOAN 250  Seminar in Art and Culture  3.0; 3 cr.
A cross-cultural exploration of art as an idea, an object, a history, and a way of interacting with the world. How is art a universal category? This course applies anthropological theories to the study of art and art theories to the study of human society. Particular attention is paid to local resources and archives. Occasionally.

SOAN 251  Seminar in Anthropological Thought  3.0; 3 cr.
An investigation of the major theories guiding anthropological thinking today, through a historically contextualizing overview. This course introduces students to a range of theoretical propositions concerning such topics as agency, structure, subjectivity, power, and the politics of representation by reading primary texts from landmark figures in sociocultural anthropology. Occasionally.
SOAN 252  Cannibals, Liars, Spies: Controversies in the Study of Humans 3.0; 3 cr.
An investigation of the cases that have shaken the discipline of anthropology and/or sociology. This course uses some exciting issues such as cannibalism, lying, and spying to enter into some of the core issues that concern the study of humans. Occasionally

SOAN 290  Special Topics Seminar 3.0; 3 cr.
SOAN faculty or visiting professors and recognized scholars might be invited to offer seminars to explore relevant dimensions of their research in progress. May be repeated for credit. Occasionally.

SOAN 299  Directed Study 3–6 cr.
A tutorial course offered to SBS students with an average of 85 or above in their major at the beginning of their senior year. This tutorial consists of independent research, original creative compositions, or directed reading, and includes the presentation of a report or thesis on the work. Students with averages lower than 85 may be admitted to directed study at the discretion of the department. Occasionally.
