

Office of Student Affairs

The Office of Student Affairs oversees student activities, athletics, counseling, student housing, international student services, career and placement services. The office also manages university-wide operations such as the bursary, the New Student Orientation and the work-study programs. The Office of Student Affairs provides services to students that enhance their overall well-being and create opportunities for them to enrich and broaden their educational experience.

The website has comprehensive information on all programs: <http://staff.aub.edu.lb/~websao>.

Student Activities

Student Activities aims to provide opportunities for student development through co-curricular activities that complement AUB's academic programs. The specific aims of the department are to:

- provide opportunities for student leadership in a variety of settings such as clubs/societies, student representative committees and student publications
- serve as an information resource for students about student life at AUB
- provide support services for student organizations
- promote diversity and civic responsibility
- coordinate and facilitate the work and events of AUB student organizations
- organize major campus events, such as the Outdoor Festival, the Folk Dance Festival and the New Student Orientation Program.

All activities organized by students must be approved by the Department of Student Activities and the Dean of Student Affairs. The department's role is to supervise these activities and other student activities which take place in West Hall. West Hall hosts most student activities in addition to various AUB events sponsored by faculties, departments, centers, and alumni.

Counseling

Adjusting to university life can be a difficult transition and a very stressful experience for many students. Personal difficulties, whether of a recent or long-standing nature, can hinder academic success and seriously affect a student's quality of life and well-being.

Personal counseling is offered to AUB students to help them identify and address their issues and problems. This could include anxiety, depression, grief, substance abuse, eating disorders, and relationship and family problems. In fact, there are no restrictions as to what can be discussed in counseling.

The counseling team provides assistance to students with study-related issues such as test anxiety and time management. Counseling is free and confidential.

Career and Placement Services

The Career and Placement Services (CPS) aims at helping AUB students in their transition from being students to becoming professionals. The CPS encourages students to develop their career plans by providing resources, contacts, activities, workshops, seminars, job fairs, career events and career counseling. CPS strives to promote:

- Career Exploration and Decision Making

Facilitating the exploration of career options and developing effective career planning skills.

- Skills Development

Helping students develop skills within their academic disciplines to enhance their professional image.

- Experiential Learning

Disseminating employment information and providing resources to explore changing trends in the global job market.

- Career Placement

Helping current and former AUB students to achieve their career goals through the development of lifetime career planning and job search skills. Assisting them in finding full-time employment, internships, and part-time jobs.

- Employer Development

Building and expanding long-term relationships between the American University of Beirut and the employment community.

Student Housing

As one of the few residential universities in the Middle East offering a beautiful campus where a rich extracurricular activity prevails, strong and supportive communities flourished offering thousands of residents the chance to experience the wonders of community living.

Freshman students whose parents reside outside Beirut are required to live in the University's residence halls throughout their first year unless otherwise requested in writing by their parents. Arrangements for on-campus housing are made through the Office of Student Affairs. The Admissions office sends each new student a residence application form as soon as she/he makes the commitment to enroll. A copy of the application is available on our webpage during June and early application is strongly advised.

The application form must be completed and returned to the Office of Student Affairs by Friday of the 2nd week of July for the fall semester, and by Friday of the 3rd week of December for the spring semester. Every new student applicant must pay a deposit fee of L.L. 300,000 which may be paid in cash at the AUB Cashier or by check issued in Lebanese Pounds or U.S. Dollars to the order of the American University of Beirut.

Students who do not live in a residence hall during the fall semester but wish to do so in the spring semester and/or summer session may apply and are assigned space subject to availability. For each semester the housing charges appear on the statement of fees issued to each student following the completion of the registration process; they vary depending on the type of accommodation selected as follows:

Double	LL 1,785,000 (double occupancy room with a shared floor bathroom)
Semi-private	LL 2,205,000 (two double occupancy rooms with their own bathroom)
Private	LL 2,886,000 (single occupancy room with a shared floor bathroom)

The above rates do not include to women's off-campus MayFair Residence where the rooms are divided into double, single and suites, each having its own bathroom, balcony, and telephone.

MayFair Rates:

Double	LL 2,580,000
Private	LL 4,515,000
Suite	LL 4,837,500

Residence Halls

There are seven student residence halls: five for women, two for men. The rooms are divided mainly into shared double and in rare instances, when availability permits, a few private rooms. The priority is to accommodate undergraduate applicants, mainly freshman students from outside Beirut as well as international students. Graduate applicants are considered only if space remains. The semi private category is not available in the men's residence halls.

All residence halls have heating, air-conditioning, hot water, washing machines, dryers, irons, and wireless Internet. Each room is equipped with a bed, desk, chair, and closet. A phone service for making local and international calls through prepaid cards is available in the lobby or reception area of each hall.

Women's Residence Halls

Four women's halls are located on the lower campus overlooking the Mediterranean, and the fifth is located off-campus in the heart of Hamra area within a short walking distance from campus. The ground floor of each hall houses a reception desk, a kitchen, and a lobby for socializing, receiving guests and watching television with cable subscription. International pay phones, laundry facilities and vending machines with snacks and soft drinks are installed in the basements.

Men's Residence Halls

The two men's residence halls are located in the west part of the upper campus, overlooking the splendid Mediterranean. and close to Bliss Street, with its abundance of shops. The ground floor of each hall houses a reception desk, a kitchen, and a lobby for socializing, receiving guests and watching television with cable subscription. International pay phones, laundry facilities and vending machines with snacks and soft drinks are available on the ground floor.

Work-Study Program

The Office of Student Affairs coordinates an extensive work-study program that provides work-study opportunities on campus for eligible full-time undergraduate and graduate students.

During the academic year 2008-09 over 450 students participated in the work-study program working with faculty and administration in various campus offices and in the Medical Center.

All full-time students in good academic standing may apply for open positions at the Office of Student Affairs. Selection is competitive.

Passports, Visas, and Residence Permits

International students joining AUB, who do not hold Lebanese passports, must have their foreign passports valid for a period of not less than 13 months from the date of joining the University; they should also secure an entry visa from the nearest Lebanese Embassy or consulate in their country.

Once registered, international students who do not hold Lebanese passports are required to obtain a residence permit before the expiration of the entry visa stamped in their passports. Students must apply for this permit as soon as possible after arrival in Beirut, and ONLY after registering and paying AUB tuition fees. Applications are available in the International Programs Office

The International Programs Office, in coordination with the Human Resources Office, the Office of Admissions, and the Office of the Registrar, will help to provide the necessary certificates for registered foreign students to acquire residence permits from the Lebanese authorities.

International Student Services

International Student Services (ISS) provides support to international students studying at AUB. All international students should register upon arrival with the International Programs Office, so that the office will know how to reach you, and so that you will know about these special services:

- pre-arrival assistance
- orientation programs for international students
- AUB Ambassadors: AUB student volunteers are matched with international students on campus to help newcomers adjust to AUB and Lebanon
- social gatherings, activities, and trips for international students
- visa, travel, and residence permit information

Study Abroad/Student Exchange

AUB has several exchange/study abroad programs for undergraduate and graduate students. AUB's growing number of international partner institutions include: the American University, Washington D.C., Sciences Po, France, Boston University, USA, Bogazici and Yeditepe Universities in Istanbul, and the Elliot School for International Relations at George Washington University (USA).

To obtain information, and to discuss your interests in studying abroad, contact the International Programs Office, using the contacts listed above.

Faculty Exchange/Research Opportunities

Information for faculty concerning research opportunities, visiting appointments, fellowship programs and so on is available at the International Programs Office (IPO). The IPO has a current listing of all institutions/consortia/universities with which AUB maintains formal agreements.
