Students expecting to work in Arab history must also have knowledge of Arabic.

History

Mission Statement

By means of a broad and diversified curriculum, our undergraduate program introduces students to the richness and complexity of Arab and Middle Eastern history. That program is intended to develop not only essential knowledge of the past, but also awareness of the methodological and theoretical problematic involved in the study of history as a discipline in the humanities. Students are motivated to be reflexive, to read, research and write critically, analytically, and without prejudice or preconceptions. Courses in European and American history supplement the core offerings, fostering a comparative understanding of the enduring relevance of the past in multiple contexts. In line with the Faculty’s mission, the program maintains Major and Minor flexible requirements, leaving room for students to explore other fields of study.

BA in History

Students majoring in history must complete a minimum of 39 credit hours in the department, including HIST 286, HIST 287, HIST 291, and HIST 292. Detailed programs are determined by subcommittees of the department, which advise each student on courses in his/her major, related departments, and electives. In fulfillment of university requirements majors must also take the following: language requirements (English 6 crs.; Arabic 3 crs.); General Education requirements (Humanities 12 crs.; Social Sciences 6 crs.; Natural Sciences 6 crs.; Quantitative Thought 3 crs).

Part time
Students choosing to minor in history must complete five courses numbered 200 and above. All minors, especially those considering graduate work in history, are encouraged to take HIST 287 as one of the five courses.

HIST 101/102  Survey of Modern Europe  3.0; 3 cr. (each)
A chronological and topical survey of the political and socio-economic forces that have shaped modern Europe and the rest of the world. Attention is given to teaching students how to tackle historical problems and how to initiate and conduct research. For freshman students only. Annually.

HIST 200  Introduction to the History of the United States  3.0; 3 cr.
An introductory survey of the social and political development of the United States from its colonial origins through the early twentieth century. Principal themes include European settlement of the North American continent and the establishment of an independent United States; the tensions between North and South that culminated in civil war; and the social transformations brought about by the rise of a market-oriented, industrial society. Open to freshman students. Annually.

HIST 201  Introduction to the Study of History  3.0; 3 cr.
An introduction to some of the main themes and problems of the study of history such as the structures, aims, and methods of historical writing, and related questions such as causation, periodization, and style. The readings in this course are drawn mostly from modern texts in the methodology of history. Offered occasionally.

HIST 202  Introduction to the Modern History of the Arab East  3.0; 3 cr.
An introduction to the modern history of the Arab East from the Ottoman conquest until the outbreak of the Arab revolt. This course also uses case studies relating to the rise of local Arab rule and to Arab-Turkish relations in the late Ottoman period. Annually.

HIST 212  Islamic History: Origins and Empire, 600–750  3.0; 3 cr.
A course that focuses on the origins of Islam in Arabia, Islamic expansion, internal divisions, and the establishment of the Umayyad dynasty. This course emphasizes the themes of Arab expansion and adaptation, the historical roots of Shiism, institutional developments, problems of societal integration, and the factors of decline. Alternate years.

HIST 213  Islamic History: The Rise and Fall of the Abbasids, 750–1055  3.0; 3 cr.
A survey of the Abbasid Caliphate from its establishment in 750 to the Seljuk take-over of Baghdad in 1055. This course studies the origins, interpretation, and results of the Abbasid revolution, the militarization of the state, the emergence of specific institutions, the process of political decentralization, and the flourishing of cultural-scientific achievements. Alternate years.

HIST 214  Islamic History: Military Society in the Middle East, 1055–1500  3.0; 3 cr.
A course that completes the three-part survey of the central lands of Islam, covering the period from the Seljuk conquest in the eleventh century until the Ottoman expansion into the Middle East at the beginning of the sixteenth century. This course traces the fusion of societies that generated a new social and political order in the region. Alternate years.

Archaeology

Mission Statement

The undergraduate program in Archaeology provides students with a working knowledge and critical understanding of the methodological and theoretical principles of archaeological investigation and fieldwork. Its curriculum introduces students to the wealth and diversity of Mediterranean and Near Eastern archaeology. In addition to developing essential knowledge about the material and cultural roots of past societies, the program enhances student awareness about the value and relevance of Lebanon's and the region's archaeological heritage. In line with the Faculty's mission, the program maintains Major and Minor flexible requirements, enabling students to explore other areas of academic interest.

BA in Archaeology

Students majoring in archaeology must complete a minimum of 39 credit hours in the department, including HIST 286, HIST 287, AROL 233 or 234, and AROL 291 or AROL 292. Detailed programs are determined by subcommittees of the department, which advise each student on courses in his/her major, related departments, and electives. In fulfillment of university requirements majors must also take the following: language requirements (English 6 crs.; Arabic 3 crs.); General Education requirements (Humanities 12 crs.; Social Sciences 6 crs.; Natural Sciences 6 crs.; Quantitative Thought 3 crs).

Students choosing a minor in archaeology must complete five courses numbered 200 and above, including one of the following courses: AROL 211, AROL 212, AROL 233, AROL 234, AROL 291, or AROL 292.

AROL 101  Introduction to Archaeology  3.0; 3 cr.
An introductory course on how the world’s archaeological resources are threatened and require rescue, protection, and management. Archaeology studies this cultural heritage and rediscovers human experience from its origins to the present. What is the nature of archaeological evidence, and how can it be saved? Each semester.

AROL 201  Archaeology in Lebanon  3.0; 3 cr.
A course that presents the archaeology of Lebanon: its history, institutional organization, the state of the evidence, and the problems Lebanon’s archaeological heritage is facing. Reports of the country’s main excavated sites and standing monuments are studied in combination with required site visits. Alternate years.

AROL 211/212  Methodology  3.0; 3 cr. (each)
A study of the methods of recovery, systematic description, integration, and presentation of archaeological material for the preservation and reconstruction of information from the human past. Special emphasis is given to cultural heritage preservation and education in Lebanon and the Near East. Alternate years.
AROL 213  The Human Story I: The Old Stone Age  3.0; 3 cr.
(up to ca. 10,000 BC)
A course on the physical and cultural evolution of hominids and early humans subsisting on food gathering, hunting, and fishing in a Pleistocene environment. The cultural and functional significance of artifacts and lifestyles are investigated with the help of information gained from the palaeoenvironment, experimental technology, and ethnography. Alternate years.

AROL 214  The Human Story II: The New Stone Age or Neolithic Period (tenth to fourth millennium BC)  3.0; 3 cr.
A course on the gradual domestication of plants and animals, leading to food production, and the development of socio-cultural systems with increasing differentiation of activities. Neolithic village communities are investigated for evidence of new technologies and arts and crafts, including exotic raw materials and luxury goods. Alternate years.

AROL 215/216  The Near East in the Bronze Ages  3.0; 3 cr. (each)
(3500–1200 BC)
A course on the growth of small towns and larger urban centers in an essentially agricultural environment. The changes that occurred during the later second millennium and the breakdown of the Bronze Age urban palace culture are investigated. Alternate years.

AROL 217  Phoenicia and the Phoenicians  3.0; 3 cr.
An investigation of the archaeology of the Levantine coast between 1200 and 300 BC, with special emphasis on recently excavated Iron Age sites in Lebanon. This course examines the organization of the Phoenician city-states, and their material culture. Alternate years.

AROL 218  The Phoenician Expansion in the Mediterranean  3.0; 3 cr.
A study of the Phoenician, mainly Tyrian and Sidonian, expansion in the Mediterranean, its causes, and the means by which it was achieved. This course also examines the material culture of the first millennium BC Phoenician settlements in Cyprus, North Africa, Italy, and Spain, and cultural and economic interaction with local populations. Offered occasionally.

AROL 219/220  Ancient Mesopotamia  3.0; 3 cr. (each)
A study of the major political, cultural, and technological achievements of Mesopotamian civilization from the fourth millennium BC to the fall of the Neo-Babylonian Empire. Specific archaeological sites are chosen to illustrate the material culture of the successive historical periods from Late Uruk to Neo-Babylonian times. Offered occasionally.

AROL 221/222  Archaeology of the Greek World  3.0; 3 cr. (each)
A course on the Greek Bronze and Dark Ages (221), covering the archaeology of Minoan Crete, the Cyclades, Helladic and Mycenaean Greece, and the development of the early Greek city states. Archaic and Classical Greece (222) explores the history and archaeology of Greece, Western Asia Minor, and the Greek colonies in Southern Italy, and Sicily, from the eighth to the fourth centuries BC. Alternate years.

AROL 223  Archaeology of the Hellenistic World  3.0; 3 cr.
A course on the history and archaeology of the empire of Alexander the Great and his successors, in Greece, Asia Minor, the Near East, Iran, and beyond from the fourth to first centuries BC. This course covers the spread of Greek culture and institutions, and their interaction with local cultures. Alternate years.
AROL 224  Introduction to the Roman World 3.0; 3 cr.
An introduction to society and culture of the Roman Empire. The focus of this course is on Rome and the provinces, imperial history, everyday life, and material culture between the second century BC and the fourth century AD, with special emphasis on the first and second centuries, when the Roman Empire was at its height. Alternate years.

AROL 225  The Roman and Byzantine Near East 3.0; 3 cr.
A study of the history and material culture of the Near East, from the first century BC to the seventh century AD, including archaeological sites, religion, art, and architecture. The emphasis is on local traditions and responses to Roman rule. Alternate years.

AROL 226  The World of the Philistines, Israelites, and Aramaeans 3.0; 3 cr.
An investigation of the material culture of Syria and Palestine from 1200–300 BC, with special emphasis on the origin and early settlement of Philistines, Israelites, and Aramaeans, the formation of their states, and the processes of urbanization. Alternate years.

AROL 227  The Archaeology of Anatolia I: From the Neolithic to the Middle Bronze Age (10,000—1600 BC) 3.0; 3 cr.
The course covers the archaeology of Anatolia (modern Turkey) from the beginning of the Neolithic (ca. 10,000 BC) until the end of the Middle Bronze Age (ca. 1600 BC), with a special focus on key concepts such as the process of neolithization, the emergence of elites and craft specialists in the Early Bronze Age, and the development of international trade relations in the Middle Bronze Age. Alternate years.

AROL 228  The Archaeology of Anatolia II: The Hittites (1600-1200 BC) 3.0; 3 cr.
This course deals with the archaeology of Anatolia in the second millennium B.C. ca. 1600 to ca. 1200 BC. It discusses the rise and development of the Hittite empire, its material culture and the reasons of its collapse around 1200 BC. Special focus is on the emergence and decline of complex state societies and on the interconnection of Anatolia with the Ancient Near East. Alternate years.

AROL 231  Ancient Near Eastern Religions 3.0; 3 cr.
A study of ancient Mesopotamian, Canaanite, and biblical religious texts with emphasis on creation myths, divine beings, death and the afterlife, cults and rituals. This course also includes a complementary investigation of archaeological evidence for religious beliefs and practices. Offered occasionally.

AROL 232  Animals in Archaeology 3.0; 3 cr.
This course examines the relationship between humans and animals from the Palaeolithic to the end of the Roman Period. The course answers questions such as why, when and how did humans use animals? How did animals influence and change the social and economic structures of past human societies? Important concepts such as the domestication of animals, the secondary products revolution, and the development of specialized ways of subsistence such as pastoralism and nomadism will be discussed. Offered occasionally.

AROL 233/234  Fieldwork in Archaeology 3.0; 3 cr. (each)
A course entailing participation in archaeological fieldwork to acquire practical experience of methods and techniques used in area surveys, excavation, building recording, post-exavcation analysis, or ethnographic data collection related to archaeological fieldwork. Annually. Restricted to majors and minors in Archaeology.
AROL 235/236  Special Topics in Archaeology  3.0; 3 cr. (each)
A course on the archaeology of a particular area, region (e.g., Anatolia, the Arabian Peninsula, Egypt, Iran, etc.) or subject. Such courses are offered by resident or visiting specialists in their respective fields. May be repeated for credit. Offered occasionally.

AROL 291/292  Senior Seminar  3.0; 3 cr. (each)
A seminar on research methods in archaeology. Subjects include the study and identification of material culture and theoretical frameworks, or explanation in archaeology. Students are expected to research specific topics, present the results for discussion at workshop sessions, and submit their final analysis in research papers. Alternate years.

AROL 293/294  Ancient Texts  3.0; 3 cr. (each)
An introduction to West Semitic epigraphy, including the origin of the alphabet and development of alphabetic scripts, presentation of the various Semitic dialects, and palaeography and selected texts for illustration. This course may be repeated for credit under different topics. Offered occasionally.
