The Anis Makdisi Program in Literature (AMPL)

Director: El-Bizri, Nader
Advisory Committee: Dallal, Ahmad (Provost); Harb, Sirene; Khairallah, Assaad; Makdisi, Saree (UCLA)

The Anis Makdisi Program in Literature (AMPL) was inaugurated in October 2002.

Objectives

The AMPL promotes and supports interdisciplinary dialogue and different approaches in the study of literature following the tradition initiated by Anis K. Makdisi. The aim of this program is to encourage and develop scholarly interest in the humanities in general and in literature in particular, and to foster intellectual exchange among members of different departments, students, and visiting scholars.

Activities

Program activities include:

• an annual Anis K. Makdisi memorial lecture by a leading scholar in literature or a noted author of poetry or prose. All lectures are published by the program.

• a series of seminars on various issues and topics in literature and cultural studies offered by local, regional, and international scholars, novelists, and artists. The primary aim of the seminars is to enrich the study and the teaching of literature at AUB by providing wide discussion forums.

• informal gatherings (lectures, discussions, colloquia) as a venue for scholarly debate for the academic community in Beirut.

Scholarships

The Program offers two scholarships every year:

• The Anis K. Makdisi Graduate Fellowship to support graduate studies in literature at AUB
• The Anis K. Makdisi Scholarship in Literature for undergraduate studies

The Center for Arab and Middle Eastern Studies (CAMES) is an interdepartmental, interdisciplinary unit that seeks to enhance the understanding of the Middle East and Islamic civilization and to encourage informed scholarship in all academic disciplines. CAMES is committed to the study of the Arabic language and offers courses at all levels in coordination with the Department of Arabic and Near Eastern Languages, as well as a seven-week intensive Arabic language course in the summer.

CAMES offers a MA program in Middle Eastern Studies (See Graduate Catalogue) and a select number of courses at the undergraduate level. To complement students’ course work and to promote scholarship about the Middle East at AUB, the center also sponsors visiting lectures and conference and hold occasional events such as film showings and readings.

Courses

MEST 201
Introduction to the Middle East
3.0; 3 cr.
This course provides a introductory survey of the history, politics, political economy, international relations, and cultures of the contemporary Middle East.

MEST 210
Special Topics in Middle Eastern Studies
3.0; 3 cr.

MEST 240
Introduction to Lebanese Arabic
5.0; 5 cr.
This course is for foreign speakers of Arabic only. The course builds proficiency in Lebanese Arabic through the introduction of the grammatical features of the Lebanese dialect and the practice of interactive functional skills, including listening comprehension, conversation tasks, and vocabulary building. For undergraduate and graduate students. Consent of instructor required. Each semester.
MEST 241  Intermediate Lebanese Arabic
5.0; 5 cr.
This course is for foreign speakers of Arabic only. Intermediate Lebanese Arabic is a continuation of MEST 240 Introduction to Lebanese Arabic. The course emphasizes the further development of conversational skills in Lebanese Arabic, and therefore targets primarily speaking and listening skills. Knowledge of the Arabic alphabet is required to join MEST 241. This course concentrates on increasing vocabulary and command of syntax enabling students to reach a higher level of fluency. For undergraduate and graduate students. Consent of instructor required. Prerequisite: MEST 240 or placement based on a placement interview. Each semester.

MEST 242  Advanced Lebanese Arabic
3.0; 3 cr.
This course is the continuation of the sequence begun in MEST 241 Intermediate Lebanese Arabic and MEST 240 Introduction to Lebanese Arabic. Like the preceding courses, it focuses on spoken rather than written Arabic, and will therefore target primarily the oral/aural skills; speaking and listening. Knowledge of the Arabic alphabet is required to join MEST 242. The course is designed to meet the needs and expectations of non-native young adults and adults who are seeking to develop a comfortable level of proficiency in a variety of complicated communicative tasks and social situations. For undergraduate and graduate students. Consent of instructor required. Prerequisite: MEST 241 or placement based on a placement interview. Each semester.
