The Department of Education offers programs at both the undergraduate and graduate levels. The undergraduate level program leads to a Bachelor of Arts degree. The post-BA Diploma Program leads to a Teaching Diploma, Diploma in Special Education, or Diploma in Educational Management and Leadership. The graduate program leads to a Master of Arts degree in education.

The Department of Education offers a program leading to the degree of Bachelor of Arts in Education/Elementary.

BA in Education/Elementary

Mission Statement

The Bachelor of Arts in Education/Elementary Program aims at developing students' knowledge base for teaching and competence in professional practice as well as promoting a commitment to personal professional development and active participation in the professional community. Through fulfillment of coursework, field-based experiences, and professional community service activities students are prepared to enter the field of teaching and/or graduate studies in education as reflective practitioners, literate in information and communication technology, and critical thinkers committed to the human and moral values of lifelong learning, integrity, innovation, civic responsibility, and leadership.

The bachelor's degree in education/elementary aims at developing:

- professional understanding of children and their learning needs at the elementary level,
- broad-based competencies in methods and techniques of teaching to meet and develop learning needs, and
- adequate knowledge of subject matter taught in elementary schools.

\(^{\text{a part time}}\)
Degree Requirements

The program for the BA in elementary education is based on at least 90 credits as follows:

University General Education Requirements (36 cr.)

- Humanities (12 cr.) Group I CVSP (3 cr.), Group II CVSP (3 cr.); Humanities I (3 cr.) Humanities II (3 cr.)
- ENGL 203, ENGL 204; and ARAB 201A or any General Education Arabic Communication Skills course.
- Social sciences (6 cr.): One course must be an approved General Education course from outside the major.
- Natural science (6 cr.)
- Quantitative thought (3 cr.).

Education Requirements (39 cr.)

- Core Education Courses (21 cr.): EDUC 211 or EDUC 216, EDUC 215, EDUC 217, EDUC 219*, EDUC 223, EDUC 230, EDUC 231
- Specialization Courses (18 cr.):
  - Methods Courses (6 cr.): One of the following pairs: EDUC 240 and EDUC 251 (Arabic and social studies), EDUC 228 and EDUC 229 (art and music), EDUC 245 and EDUC 251 (English and social studies), EDUC 252 and EDUC 257 (math and science)
  - Seminar (6 cr.): EDUC 291 and EDUC 292
  - Practicum (6 cr.): EDUC 267

Subject Matter Courses (24 cr.)

- Specialization Courses (18 cr.): These are from 200 and above. They include one course in each of math and natural science, and 12 credits to be selected from two related disciplines (Arabic-social studies, art-music, English-social studies, math-science). Special math and science courses designed for teaching in the elementary school are offered by the department (EDUC 271*, EDUC 272, EDUC 273*, and EDUC 274). EDUC 218 is required as a subject matter course for language arts concentrations (Arabic–social studies and English–social studies).
- Electives within Subject Matter (6 cr.): 3 credits* in either nutrition or environmental health, and 3 credits in art or music.*

General Electives (6 cr.)

Minor in Education

The department offers a minor which aims to provide a broad-based knowledge and understanding of the psychological, sociological/philosophical, and professional basis of education. The education minor consists of the following: EDUC 211 or EDUC 216, EDUC 215 or EDUC 225, EDUC 230, and one elective from the following courses: EDUC 219, EDUC 223, EDUC 221, plus a general elective in education (3 credits).

* One of these two courses may satisfy an Education major's General Education requirement
Diploma Programs

Teaching Diploma Programs

The Teaching Diploma Program prepares elementary and secondary schoolteachers. This requires specialization in a subject matter area that can be completed before or during professional preparation in the Department of Education. Once completed, this preparation culminates in a teaching diploma that qualifies a student to teach at either the elementary or the secondary level. The program is comprised of a total of 21 credit hours in education.

Teaching Diploma in Elementary Education

Education Course Requirements

- EDUC 215
- EDUC 230
- For students concentrating on teaching Arabic and Social Studies: EDUC 231, 240, 251, 268
- For students concentrating on teaching Art and Music: EDUC 231, 228, 229, 268
- For students concentrating on teaching English and Social Studies: EDUC 231, 245, 251, 268
- For students concentrating on teaching Math and Sciences: EDUC 231, 252, 257, 268
- An elective in education

Subject Matter Requirements

24 credit hours in courses numbered 200 or above distributed over two subject matter areas from the following combinations: a) Arabic and social studies, b) art and music, c) English and social studies, and d) math and sciences. The math and science courses offered by the Department of Education (EDUC 271, EDUC 272, EDUC 273, EDUC 274) may be considered to satisfy part of the subject matter requirement in math and sciences. EDUC 218 may be used to satisfy part of the subject matter requirements for language arts concentrations (Arabic–social studies and English–social studies).

Teaching Diploma in Secondary Education

Education Course Requirements

- EDUC 211 or 216
- EDUC 215
- EDUC 230
- Two methods courses from the sequence EDUC 237-256 plus one relevant course from the sequence EDUC 261-269
- An elective in education

Subject Matter Requirements

Students must complete the requirements for a bachelor's degree in a subject matter area taught in elementary and/or secondary schools before they are granted this diploma. These areas include Arabic, English, health, informatics, math, science, and social studies. In case of a shift in major, students are required to complete a minimum of 24 credit hours in the new subject matter area in courses numbered 200 or above.

NOTE: Only courses that are in areas taught in intermediate and secondary schools qualify for subject matter courses for the purposes of the Teaching Diploma.

Methods Courses
Methods courses at the secondary level are subject matter oriented, i.e., they deal with teaching a subject matter that has been chosen by the student as a major field of specialization. The distribution is as follows:

- EDUC 237, EDUC 238  Theories and Methods of Health Education
- EDUC 241, EDUC 242  Teaching of Arabic
- EDUC 243, EDUC 244  Teaching of English as a Foreign Language
- EDUC 246–EDUC 248  Informatics Education
- EDUC 249, EDUC 250  Teaching of Social Studies
- EDUC 253, EDUC 254  Teaching of Math
- EDUC 255, EDUC 256  Teaching of Sciences

In the case of students who are actual teachers in a recognized school, special arrangements may be made with the instructors of the methods courses to adjust practical components of the course requirements, such as the methods courses and practicums.

Admission to the Teaching Diploma Programs
New students should obtain an application from the Office of Admissions and apply as new students. Applications are reviewed by the department and, when accepted, students are classified as special students working for the teaching diploma. Completion of the bachelor's degree is a requirement for admission of new students to the teaching diploma programs. AUB students working for their bachelor's degree at AUB have to apply to the department directly.

Qualifications for the Teaching Diploma and Official Recognition by the Lebanese Government
Teaching Diploma in Elementary Education
Students qualify for the teaching diploma upon completion of the program of study as detailed above, attaining a cumulative average of 70 or above in its courses, and receiving the recommendation of the Department of Education.

Official recognition of the diploma is granted by the government of Lebanon as equivalent to the License d'Enseignement in elementary education if the person:

- holds the Baccalaureate Part II or equivalent,
- has completed a minimum of 111 semester credits, and
- has completed a minimum of 45 semester credits in the field of education.
Teaching Diploma in Secondary Education

Students qualify for the teaching diploma upon completion of the program of study as detailed above, attaining a cumulative average of 70 or above in its courses, and receiving the recommendation of the Department of Education.

Official recognition of the diploma is granted by the government of Lebanon as equivalent to the License d'Enseignement if the person:

- holds the Baccalaureate Part II or equivalent,
- has a bachelor's degree in a subject taught at the secondary level (Arabic, English, informatics, math, science, and social studies), and
- has completed the diploma requirements (21 semester credits in the field of education) over and above the total number required for a bachelor's degree.

Diploma in Special Education

The special education diploma program is a 21-credit program designed to help diploma students develop the skills, knowledge, and values needed to specialize in the teaching of children and youth with special educational needs with an emphasis on mild and high incidence exceptionalities: Learning Disabilities (LD) or Giftedness and Talent (G&T). Collaboration and consultation skills will be the cornerstone of the program.

Track One: Learning Disabilities

The Learning Disabilities track is designed to serve the needs of four groups: (1) Teachers who plan to participate in teaching students with learning disabilities in their schools in Lebanon or other Arab countries; (2) teachers who want to learn how to accommodate the weaknesses of LD students in their regular classrooms or other educational settings; (3) trainee teachers employed in non-school settings who want to know how to work with children and youth with learning disabilities; (4) parents interested in the education of students with learning disabilities. The 21-credit program is designed to develop awareness, positive attitudes, and understanding about teaching students with learning disabilities, as well as competence in curriculum development, delivery, and evaluation.

Track Two: Gifted and Talented Education

The Gifted and Talented Education track is designed to serve the needs of four groups: (1) Teachers who plan to participate in the education of identified gifted and talented students in their schools in Lebanon or elsewhere in the Arab world; (2) teachers who want to learn how to accommodate the unique needs of gifted and talented students in their regular classrooms; (3) trainee teachers employed in non-school settings who want to know how to work with gifted and talented children and youth; (4) parents interested in gifted and talented education. The 21-credit program is designed to develop awareness, positive attitudes, and understanding about teaching gifted and talented students, as well as competence in curriculum development, delivery, and evaluation.

For admission to this program, students may enroll as part of their bachelor's degree program or after completing the bachelor's degree. It is preferable if the undergraduate major is in education or in psychology, but students with other undergraduate majors may be considered. For completion of this program, 21 credit hours are required with a cumulative average of 70. The program is composed of the following courses:
