Arabic Exemption Form

Students following the Lebanese Baccalaureate program or a program leading to the government secondary school certificate from an Arabic speaking country are required to take Arabic courses. Students admitted to the sophomore class are required to take one Arabic course as mentioned in the previous page; students admitted to the freshman class are required to take one freshman Arabic course in addition to one Arabic course in their sophomore year.

Other students who were following a foreign program and who have not taken Arabic in their secondary school years or whose proficiency in the Arabic language does not qualify them to take university level Arabic courses may apply to be given an exemption by filling this form.
