

CAMPAIGN GUIDELINES

- A stand reservation form needs to be filled and submitted to the Coordinator of Student Activities Room 112C for reserving a stand during the Campaign.
- All materials to be distributed on campus MUST be approved by the Office of Student Affairs (OSA). Students who distribute or post unauthorized leaflets and posters on Campus will expose themselves to disciplinary measures.
- Campaign expenditure must not be excessive and be limited to printing, decorations and elections related paraphernalia as approved by the Office of Student Affairs. Evidence of undisclosed gifts, services and/or favors shall result in the dismissal of the candidate from the elections and possible disciplinary measures.
- Clear evidence of intimidation shall result in dismissal of the candidate/candidates, disciplinary action and possible referral to the police authorities for further investigation and action.
- All campaign material must be stamped at the Office of Student Affairs to certify conformity with election campaign guidelines and must not:
 - Violate Lebanese Law
 - Violate AUB rules and regulation
 - Defame or libel others
 - Advocate intimidation, harassment or violence towards others
 - Advocate behavior that jeopardizes the health, safety or welfare of others
 - Offend reasonable standards of decency
 - Promote or identify political parties or sectarian groups. Pictures of political and religious leaders are strictly forbidden. Slogans of political and religious factions are strictly forbidden.
 - Contain statements known to be false or misleading with intent of improperly influencing voters.

If in doubt please consult the Office of Student Affairs for final approval.

Regulations during the Campaign:

- Stands, chairs and tables are provided by the Office of Student Affairs (OSA). Approval of the OSA is required before use of stands.
- Construction of stands is strictly forbidden. Decoration of stands is allowed provided it conforms to the above guidelines.
- Every four candidates are entitled to one stand arranged by the Office of Student Affairs on the basis of a draw. All candidates are invited to attend the draw and must be present to ensure allocation of a stand.
- Individual candidates who prefer not to share one of the existing stands will be given a table and a chair if available.
- During the campaign remove all your personal belongings from the booths. Otherwise, all items will be disposed in an appropriate manner. We are not responsible for any loss or theft for personal items left in the stands.