WHAT? Istituto Europeo di Design (IED) offers the winners in the fashion design competition 30 scholarships for international students 2009-2010, master courses in Rome, Milan, Venice, Barcelona, Turin, and Madrid.

WHEN? The deadline for submitting projects is September 10, 2009.

WHO? International candidates between 20 and 45 years old can participate in this competition.

HOW?

- Winners will be rewarded with a free tuition master course in IED schools of Design, Fashion, Visual Arts and Communication.
- There are four design ideas to be developed, one for each school. “Design for a better world” is the theme of this competition. The participants must create a project reflecting or promoting a better and sustainable world through art, fashion and design.
- The projects selected and published on website www.creativediary.net can be rated and commented by visitors. Candidates will be able to check the rating left by visitors and to read the comments.
- Projects may be sent by airmail or e-mail (scholarships@ied.edu). A jury of experts will assign scholarships to best works.
- Students can find out how to participate on www.creativediary.net
