For the 6th year in a row, the Biomedical Research Day was held on February 27, 2016. This event is a platform for AUB students to showcase their work in the biomedical research. Out of the 127 abstracts presented this year, 6 were by SHARP graduates as per below

Abstracts

Marlene Chakhtoura, MD, SHARP Summer 2013 graduate and SHARP 2015 MS graduate: “Impact of Vitamin D Replacement in the Middle East and North Africa: A systematic Review and Meta-analysis of Randomized Controlled Trials”

Elias Ghoussoub, MD, SHARP Summer 2014 graduate and SHARP MS student: “The Epidemiology of ADHD in a Beirut Community Sample: Results of the BEI-PSY Study”

Fatima Ghaddar, MD, MPH, SHARP Summer 2014 graduate: “Prevalence and correlates of undiagnosed hypertension among Lebanese adults: A national study”

Sara Faour, MD, SHARP Summer 2014 graduate: “Gonadotropin Releasing Hormone Agonist to Trigger Final Follicle Maturation in Women at Risk for Ovarian Hyperstimulation Syndrome: A Novel Multi-Dose Protocol”

Hussein Abou Abbass, MD, SHARP Summer 2015 graduate: “Deciphering Neuroproteomic Alterations in Experimental TBI: Comparative Analysis of”

Elie Moubarak, MD, SHARP Summer 2015 graduate: “Semen Human Papilloma Virus (HPV) shedding in men undergoing assisted reproductive technologies: Prevalence and clinical outcome”