SHARP students’ abstract “Role of Nutritional Indices in Predicting 30 Day Mortality in Vascular Surgery Outcomes” was published in the January issue of the Journal of Parenteral and Enteral Nutrition (JPEN). The abstract is the work of SHARP Summer 2015 students Jana Jabbour, Adham N. Abou Ali, Wissam Rabeh, and Grace Hakim under the mentorship of Dr. Robert Habib. Student Jana Jabbour presented the abstract at the American Society of Parenteral and Enteral Nutrition (ASPEN) annual conference in Austin, Texas.
