Dear Student,

We are delighted that you are planning to apply to AUB and hope that you will be able to visit the campus during the coming months and learn more about the curriculum, facilities and student life. As you are completing this application for admission, you will be asked to make a number of choices: decisions about which entrance level is appropriate for you, which program(s) of study most interest you, when you would like to begin your studies, and on what timeline you will complete your application and the decision of the Admissions Committee about it. You will also want to make sure that you complete all the steps in the application process in a timely way. Please review the admissions policies, requirements and deadlines summarized in the Admissions Information in this publication. In order to make informed decisions and to complete your application successfully you should be familiar with these policies and should meet all requirements and deadlines. Let me call your special attention to the following:

- Academic Requirements and Records refers to the type of secondary preparation needed for applying to the various entry levels and faculties.
- The SAT I requirement refers to the standardized test all applicants must submit by certain dates.
- The English Language Proficiency Requirement (ELPR) refers to ways in which you may indicate that you have the degree of English proficiency needed to succeed in a program taught almost entirely in English.
- The Early Admission Program refers to a plan for applying to AUB early in the application cycle in order to receive an early decision.
- Application deadlines refers to the dates:
  - Fall semester of the academic year 2012–13: November 30, 2011
  - Spring semester of the academic year 2013–14: February 1, 2012
  - Notification Date by end of January, 2012
- Once again, I hope you will visit AUB’s beautiful campus if you can, and please don’t hesitate to write, call or email us with any questions you may have about your preparation for admission, your application, or the University. We look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Salim Kanaan, PhD
Director of Admissions
