Dismissal and Readmission

A student will be dismissed from the Faculty for any of the following reasons:

- If the student’s overall average is less than 60 at the end of the 2\textsuperscript{nd} regular semester.
- If the student fails to clear academic probation within two regular semesters, excluding the summer term, after being put on probation.
- If the student is placed on academic probation for a total of four regular semesters.
- If the student is deemed unworthy by the faculty to continue for professional or ethical reasons.

A student will normally be considered for readmission only if, after spending a year at another recognized institution of higher education, the student is able to present a satisfactory record and recommendation. Exceptions may be made for students who left the University for personal or health reasons. Transfer credit will be considered after departmental evaluation of a student’s course work.
