Withdrawal from Courses

A student may withdraw from courses, down to a minimum of 12 credits, not later than 10 weeks (five weeks in the summer term) from the start of the semester. A student cannot withdraw, or be withdrawn, from a course after the announced deadline unless approved by the FEA Academic and Curriculum Committee.

Students cannot withdraw, or be forced to withdraw, from a course at any time if this results in the student being registered for less than 12 credits without the prior approval of the FEA Academic and Curriculum Committee. Students who withdraw or are forced to drop a course will receive a grade of “W”.
