

October 30, 2019

Dear AUB community,

The American University of Beirut has decided to resume classes tomorrow, Thursday, October 31. Our aim is to optimize the academic schedule in order to best serve the needs of all our students, which is and will always remain our overarching goal.

Further information will soon be communicated by the provost and the deans.

Best regards,

Fadlo R. Khuri, MD
President