OFFICE OF THE REGISTRAR

January 10, 2023

WELCOME TO AUB!

It gives us great pleasure to welcome you to the AUB community. We expect you will find an inspiring campus life and a powerful educational journey here. The New Student Orientation (NSO) will help you take the first steps. There is so much to explore!

The five-days NSO runs from January 10, 2023 through January 18, 2023 and is designed to guide you through important information that you should know about AUB departments and services. The NSO will be delivered in a blended format where the first two weeks will be on AUB's learning management system Moodle. You will then have in-person sessions with your departments and advisors when you join the Faculty orientation sessions starting January 17, 2023.

Please access the NSO checklist and make sure to complete it by the set deadlines.

To be able to access the NSO and AUB platforms you must activate your AUBnet account and AUB email by January 6, 2023. You will find the steps you need to follow along with other helpful guidelines in the New Students Welcome Instructions.

Submission of Official Documents:

You must submit all official documents required to complete your admissions file prior to registration. These documents are listed in the letter of admission and/or acceptance email sent previously. If you still did not meet the English language requirements, please check the next AUB-EN registration dates today and arrange to take the required tests. Once the spring term begins, you may no longer attempt to place into a more advanced English class.

For International Students (Degree seeking, Exchange, and Visiting):

All international students are strongly encouraged to attend the Office of International Program's (OIP) on-campus session on Monday January 16, 2023 and follow the International Student Welcome Program on Moodle. Refer to OIP's Accepted Students website. You may also refer to our pre-arrival checklist.

Housing:

If you are still interested in campus housing you may find more information here.

Once again, we are excited to welcome you to campus, and we wish you a great start in your academic journey!

Kind Regards,

Office of the Registrar
