Counseling

Adjusting to university life can be a difficult transition and a very stressful experience for many students. Personal difficulties, whether of a recent or long-standing nature, can hinder academic success and seriously affect a student's quality of life and well-being.

Personal counseling is offered to AUB students to help them identify and address their issues and problems. This could include anxiety, depression, grief, substance abuse, eating disorders, and relationship and family problems. In fact, there are no restrictions as to what can be discussed in counseling.

The counseling team provides assistance to students with study-related issues such as test anxiety and time management. Counseling is free and confidential.

Student Housing

The priority is to accommodate undergraduate applicants, mainly freshman students from outside Beirut as well as international students.

Freshman students whose parents reside outside Beirut are required to live in the University's residence halls throughout their first year unless otherwise requested in writing by their parents. Graduate students may be considered subject to availability. Arrangements for University housing are made through the Office of Student Affairs.

The application form must be completed and returned to the Office of Student Housing according to the deadlines set by the Office of Student Housing for each semester (usually in July for the Fall term, and December for the Spring term). Each student applying to the residence halls for the first time must pay a "dorm deposit" fee of LL 300,000 which may be paid in cash at the AUB Cashier or by check Issued In Lebanese Pounds or U.S. Dollars to the order of the American University of Beirut. This deposit will be reimbursed to the student upon graduation.

Students who do not live in a residence hall during the fall semester but wish to do so in the spring semester and/or summer session may apply and are assigned space subject to availability. For each semester the housing charges appear on the statement of fees issued to each student following the completion of the registration process; they vary depending on the type of accommodation selected as follows:
