

Office of Student Affairs

The Office of Student Affairs oversees student activities, athletics, counseling, student housing, and career and placement services. The office also manages university-wide operations, such as the bursary, the New Student Orientation and the work-study programs. The Office of Student Affairs provides services to students that enhance their overall well-being and create opportunities for them to enrich and broaden their educational experience.

The website has comprehensive information on all programs:

Student Activities

The Department of Student Activities is committed to enhancing the student experience outside the classroom by providing opportunities for student development through co-curricular activities that complement AUB's academic programs. The department of student activities strives to enrich the intellectual, ethical and social development of our students by engaging them in university and community events and by providing leadership opportunities. Our aim is to foster holistic student development. Students can become members in clubs, societies, student government, student publications, or outdoors festival.

The department plays a central role in the organization process for annual events like New Student Orientation, student elections and Folk Dance Festival.

The Department of Student Activities and the Dean of Student Affairs must approve all student activities organized on- or off-campus. The department's role is to help in facilitating these activities and ensure that students are applying the event planning process. West Hall building is considered the student hub where most of student activities are held, in addition, to various AUB events sponsored by faculties, departments, centers, and alumni.

Student Housing

As one of the few residential universities in the Middle East offering a beautiful campus where a variety of extracurricular activity prevails, strong and supportive communities flourished giving hundreds of residents the chance to experience the wonders of community living.

The priority is to accommodate undergraduate applicants starting with freshman students (eligibility of assignment criteria available on student housing homepage).

Students need to apply via AUBsis; the steps they need to follow can be found under Dorms Applications on the student-housing website:

<http://www.aub.edu.lb/SAO/housing/Pages/default.aspx>

Students are strongly advised to apply as soon as the application is activated.

For each semester, the housing charges appear on the statement of fees issued to each student following the completion of the registration process; they vary depending on the type of accommodation selected. The Student Residence Hall Rates are available via the link: <http://www.aub.edu.lb/SAO/housing/Documents/Rates-AY-19-20.pdf>

Residence Halls

There are eight student residence halls, six for women and two for men. All residence halls have heating, air-conditioning, hot water, washing machines, dryers, irons, and wireless Internet. Each room is equipped with a bed, desk, chair and closet.

Women's Residence Halls

Four women's halls are located on lower campus overlooking the Mediterranean, while the fifth is located on upper campus. The off campus dorm is in the heart of Hamra, within short walking distance from campus. The ground floor of each hall houses a reception area, a common kitchen and lobby for socializing, receiving guests and watching television. Each residence offers laundry facilities as well as vending machines with snacks and soft drinks.

Men's Residence Halls

The two men's residence halls are located in the west part of upper campus, overlooking the splendid Mediterranean and close to Bliss Street, with its abundance of shops. The ground floor of each hall houses a reception area, a common kitchen and lobby for socializing, receiving guests and watching television. Each residence offers laundry facilities as well as vending machines with snacks and soft drinks.

Career Hub

The Career Hub aims at helping AUB students in their transition from being students to becoming workplace professionals by encouraging them to build future career plans and make use of the different services and resources provided to achieve their personal aspirations.

Career Hub Strives to promote by facilitating the exploration of career options and developing effective career planning skills

Skill Development by helping students develop skills within their academic disciplines to enhance their professional image, through different career workshops and one on one sessions.

Experiential Learning by disseminating employment information and providing resources for students to explore changing trends in the global job market through three main types of experiential learning opportunities (Internships, Job Shadowing & Company Visits)

Career Placement by helping current and former AUB students to achieve their career goals through the development of lifetime career planning and job search skills and assisting them in finding full-time employment, internships and part-time jobs

Employer Development by building and expanding long-term relationships between the American University of Beirut and key employers

Major Employment Events by organizing an Annual Job Fair in April and a “Hire On Campus” event in September along other ongoing recruitment events throughout the year to give students the opportunity to network with top employers and get hired.

Work-Study Program

The Office of Student Affairs coordinates an extensive work-study program that provides work-study opportunities on campus for eligible (full-time students in good academic standing) undergraduate and graduate students. The program allows students to work with AUB faculty and staff to better connect with their university. Students can apply through AUBsis within deadlines announced by the Office of Student Affairs. Placement is made based on date of application, demand, capability and job availability. Students may work a maximum of 80 hours per month in the fall/spring semesters and 60 hours per month in the summer term.

Every year, over 700 students, including students working for financial aid, enroll in the work-study program. Students, being part of this program, contribute to their educational expenses while also developing job skills through working with faculty and administration in various campus offices and the Medical Center.

Counseling

Adjusting to university life can be a difficult transition and a very stressful experience for many students. Personal difficulties, whether of a recent or long-standing nature, can hinder academic success and seriously affect a student's quality of life and wellbeing.

Personal counseling is offered to AUB students to help them identify and address their issues and problems. These may include anxiety, depression, grief, substance abuse, sexual abuse, eating disorders, relationship and family problems, learning disabilities or any psychological difficulty students might experience. In fact, there are no restrictions as to what can be discussed in counseling.

The counseling team also provides assistance to students with study-related issues, such as test anxiety and time management. Counseling is free and confidential.

Student Wellness Outreach

Student Wellness Outreach strives to nurture a healthy and supportive University environment, which helps enhance a student's academic, social, and personal achievements. Our aim is to provide psychosocial outreach, education, and resources on campus. Different events that tackle various psychological and social topics are held across the academic year in order to help spread awareness and support. Through these services, we are committed to reinforcing a cooperative approach, in which the entire AUB community plays a role in spreading empowerment and preserving wellbeing of its student body.

Peer Support Center

Peer Support is delivered by and for individuals who share similar challenges. The support can target any social, emotional, or academic issue that can negatively affect a student's wellbeing such as but not limited to transitions, making friends, relationship pressures, or academic stress. The aim of peer support is to foster a supportive environment where students feel comfortable sharing their experiences and listening to each other. By equipping students with a non-judgmental and non-stigmatizing perspective, they will be able to accept and support one another while simultaneously looking after their own mental health.

Accessible Education Office: Disability Services and Learning Support

AUB strives to foster an inclusive university community that welcomes, respects, and values people of diverse backgrounds and abilities. In concert with this mission, the Accessible Education Office within the Office of Student Affairs exists to facilitate equal access for students with disabilities to the academic, social, and recreational activities and programs at AUB.

To achieve this goal, the Accessible Education Office (AEO) works in collaboration with students, faculty and staff to implement services and accommodations that remove barriers to participation in a robust and well-rounded student experience. The provision of such accommodations is in accordance with the university's commitment to these goals, AUB's non-discrimination policy and practices, as well as relevant US federal law.

The Accessible Education Office works in an individual and confidential manner with students who choose to disclose disabilities. Upon admittance to AUB, students seeking accommodations are encouraged to contact the AEO and set up an appointment. Please check the website below for more information.
