

The Writing Center

Director:	Zenger, Amy A.
Assistant Director:	Campbell, Todd Hunter
Administrative Assistant:	Takkoush, Sarah

The Writing Center’s mission is to support the teaching and learning of writing on campus. Established in 2004, the Writing Center performs this work through its peer tutoring program, support for General Education Writing in the Disciplines courses and special projects and events at AUB and beyond. We are committed to research and outreach to the larger community.

The Writing Center supports AUB students, staff, and faculty via one-on-one consultations and workshops on individual or group writing projects at any stage of development. Undergraduate and graduate students serve as tutors who work to help individuals become stronger writers in both English and Arabic. Appointments may be made on our online scheduler at <https://aub.mywconline.com> or by phone. Writing resources and more information about Writing Center tutors and services are located on our website at <https://aub.edu.lb/fas/writingcenter>.

The Writing Center supports faculty members via writing workshops, small group meetings, and individual consultations. Writing Center staff collaborate with faculty members as they develop, assess, and revise courses complying with the General Education-mandated requirement to offer Writing in the Disciplines instruction in every major. Workshops for programs or departments and individual consultations for faculty seeking to improve writing assignments and activities in their courses can be scheduled by emailing or calling the Writing Center.

The main Writing Center office is located in Ada Dodge Hall, room 214. Contact the Writing Center by email at writingcenter@aub.edu.lb or by phone at AUB extension 3157.
