Launch

This 1-hour online course gives an overview of the main principles of humanitarian action. This course is part 1 of a two-part course. You will learn about some of the most important principles of aid work, including impartiality, participation, doing no harm, and accountability. Through realistic scenarios, you will then be asked to apply those principles to challenges you face in assisting disaster-affected communities. This course is designed for both new aid workers and those with more experience who could benefit from a refresher.

Objectives:

- Learn about the humanitarian context as it relates to its evolution, structure, and recent trends.
- Apply the key principles and standards that guide humanitarian work.
- Engage in collaborative approaches to humanitarian challenges based upon listening and dialogue.

Note: Once learners have completed Part 1, they can proceed to Part 2, Applying Key Standards.

7. Refer to the Need More Help? section at the bottom of the Welcome Page for helpful guides on frequently asked questions and how to contact technical support.
