Students to showcase their creativity in developing sustainable solutions during International Biodiversity Day at AUB

Beirut, Lebanon- 18/05/2011 - Ibsar, or the Nature Conservation Center for Sustainable Futures at AUB, is holding its fifth annual "International Biodiversity Day at AUB" (IBDAA) exhibition on May 20, 2011 from 3 pm to 6pm.

IBDAA 2011 will be held in collaboration with Olayan School of Business at the American University of Beirut and under the patronage of The United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) on the lower campus, facing the Faculty of Agriculture.

Around 300 students will participate in this event through posters and other displays.

In past years, students have showed their creativity and imagination in IBDAA posters, finding scientific and environmentally-friendly solutions for things as diverse as shoe odor, fruit preservation, and energy savings.
