AUB holds rematch for two seats on the student council

Beirut, Lebanon- 26/11/2010- The American University of Beirut held a by-election for candidates who had tied for a seat in each of the Faculty of Arts and Sciences and the Faculty of Medicine during the general Student Representative Council elections that were held on November 25.

Student Amanda Lebbos won the election for the sophomore class in the Faculty of Arts and Sciences, while Rouba Abdennour will be representing fourth year students at the Faculty of Medicine.

Overall participation rates for this year's election were about five points lower than last year's at 68.6 percent. Some 4901 students out of 7143 eligible voters participated in Election Day.
