

Conference to highlight ways to improve standards of higher education in the region
Tuesday, November 02, 2010

The Middle East and North Africa Association for Institutional Research will host its second annual meeting at AUB on November 3-5, 2010. The theme of the meeting is "Driving Change in Higher Education in the MENA Region."

The meeting will hold pre-conference workshops, plenary sessions with outstanding international speakers, sharing of best practices, a session with quality assurance associations in the region, and a session on assessment tools that might be used on a regional basis for benchmarking.

Preliminary program can be viewed at www.mena-air.org.
