

AUB receives scholarship grants that will support the arts
Monday, October 25, 2010

AUB has received scholarship grants from the Association for the Promotion and Exhibition of the Arts in Lebanon (APEAL), which will hold a press conference on Thursday, October 28, 2010 at 11 am, at the Hotel Albergo, Al Dente restaurant (Achrafieh), to announce its art grant program.

APEAL promotes and supports contemporary art and promising new talents in Lebanon, and has previously organized the exhibition Convergence, New Art from Lebanon which showcased the works of several Lebanese artists in the fields of painting, sculpture, photography, filmmaking and architecture, which took place last April at American University's Museum Katzen Arts Center, in Washington DC, under the patronage of Lebanese Ambassador Antoine Chedid.
