Under the patronage of PM Mikati, AUB to hold international workshop on e-government

Beirut, Lebanon- 11/04/2012 - Under the patronage of Prime Minister Najib Mikati, the American University of Beirut's Suliman S. Olayan School of Business will be holding a workshop in English on electronic government or e-government, which involves the delivery of information and services by the public sector via the internet to stakeholders: users (citizens), government providers (employees, agencies, and public decision-makers) and information and communication technologies (ICT) providers and consultants.

The workshop aims to identify factors that improve satisfaction of users of e-services as well as pinpoint indicators/variables for evaluating the performance e-government services from the perspective of all stakeholders with more focus on providers.
