

Invitation

Event showcasing work by University Scholarship Program students at AUB

Beirut, Lebanon- 11/12/2015 - The University Scholarship Program (USP) of USAID at the American University of Beirut will be hosting a showcase event on Thursday, December 17, 2015 at 12:00 noon, at AUB West Hall, Bathish Auditorium, for over 200 scholarship students.

Students of the second, fourth, fifth, and sixth cohorts will display their achievements and celebrate their work among peers, friends, faculty, and colleagues. A selection of students will also present testimonials that reflect their academic and leadership work on the scholarship.

Attending the event will be notable US embassy and USAID officials, as well as President of AUB Fadlo R. Khuri and senior University administrators.

After speeches and testimonials, the audience will be invited outside to view and discuss the posters that were prepared to demonstrate student work on internships, community-based projects, and a diverse array of volunteering activities. Students will be stationed next to their posters to discuss with onlookers the experiences these posters represent. All students will then take a group picture with the officials to commemorate the event.

This is an invitation for media only.
