The Longest Dabke in AUB's History on Thursday, January 28

Beirut, Lebanon- 26/1/2016 - You are invited to witness the longest Dabke in the history of the American University of Beirut to be held on Thursday, January 28, 2016, 2:00 pm, from Bliss Hall Building on AUB upper campus next to the Green Oval, to AUB's Medical Gate.

This cultural event comes as part of the celebrations of AUB's 150th anniversary and is held by AUB student clubs and societies. The Dabke will be led by Lebanese singer Melhem Zein, with the participation of AUB students, staff, and AUB friends and alumni who have been training in coordination with AUB associate professor of organic chemistry Bilal Kaafarani for this fun communal activity as the University prepares for preparation 4th International Organic Chemistry Competition (OC4).

Please join us and be part of our celebration of Lebanese culture in AUB's biggest number of Dabke participants to date!
