

For Immediate Release

AUB holds rematch for two seats on the student council

Beirut, Lebanon- 18/11/2011 - The American University of Beirut held a by-election on November 18, 2011 for candidates who had tied for a seat in each of the Faculties of Arts and Sciences, Agricultural and Food Sciences, and Engineering and Architecture during the general Student Representative Council elections that were held two days earlier. Students Mohamad Al-Masri and Nassib Abou Haidar won the election for the senior class in the Faculty of Arts and Sciences, while Nisrine Kawa will be representing the second year nutrition students and Mohamad Saleh will represent the first-year agriculture students. Meanwhile, Fady Fadel won the seat for the fourth year engineers. Overall participation rates for this year's election were about three points lower than last year's at 65 percent.

ENDS

For more information please contact:

Maha Al-Azar, Assistant Director for Media Relations, ma110@aub.edu.lb, 01-353 228

Note to Editors

About AUB

Founded in 1866, the American University of Beirut bases its educational philosophy, standards, and practices on the American liberal arts model of higher education. A teaching-centered research university, AUB has more than 600 full-time faculty members and a student body of about 8,000 students. AUB currently offers more than 100 programs leading to the bachelor's, master's, MD, and PhD degrees. It provides medical education and training to students from throughout the region at its Medical Center that includes a full service 420-bed hospital.

Stay up to date on AUB news and events. Follow us on:

Website: www.aub.edu.lb

Facebook: <http://www.facebook.com/aub.edu.lb>

Twitter: http://twitter.com/AUB_Lebanon