

Tony Nasrallah
Al-Amal bldg, 4th Floor,
Mar Elias Str.,
Hazmieh,
Baabda, Lebanon

tony.emile.nasrallah@gmail.com

+ 961- 70830683

Tony Nasrallah

Personal Information

Age: 44 Place of Birth: Zaheh, Lebanon Marital Status: Single

Education

PhD in History (in progress)

Université Saint-Joseph de Beyrouth (USJ)
The PhD dissertation's title is "Charles Malik's Political Biography: Between Philosophy and Political Practice." The thesis is the first critical monograph to be written on the founder of AUB's CVSP Program.
Supervisor: Dr Edmond Chidiac.
Expected 2019.

Masters of Arts in History

American University of Beirut (AUB)
M.A. thesis title: "Rome, Constantinople, and the See of Antioch: the Ecclesiastical Causes of the 1724 Melkite Schism."
Supervisor: Professor Mary-Christina Wilson.
2006.

Bachelors of Architecture

Lebanese American University (LAU)
With emphasis on Middle Eastern Religious Architecture.
2000.

Languages

*Fluent in English, and Arabic
*Spoken French
*Basic Research Level in Koine Greek and Biblical Hebrew

Teaching Experience

Instructor at Lebanese American University; Department of Humanities 2009-14
Courses taught:
Ethics in Leadership
Moral Reasoning
History of the Arab Israeli Conflict
History of Modern Lebanon
Cultural Studies

Instructor at American University of Beirut; Department of Civilization Studies Program 2014-Present
Courses taught:
Ancient Near East and Classical Civilizations
Medival, Islamic and Renaissance Thought

Professional Research

Research Associate

At Notre Dame University's Institute of Lebanese Thought
2014-present

Publications: Books

Middle East Minorities and the Arab Spring: Identity and Community in the Twenty-First Century

Co-ed. (with Scott Parker) with an Introduction
New Jersey: Gorgias Press, 2017.
(book of 353 pages with ten chapters by world scholars)

Malik, C., The Systems of Whitehead's Metaphysics

Co-ed. (with Habib Malik) with an Introduction

Louaize: Notre Dame University, 2016

(book of 436 pages including 23 page Introduction)

On the Philosophical Thought of Charles Malik

Co-ed. (with Habib Malik) with an Introduction

Louaize: Notre Dame University, 2018

(book expected of 240 pages with chapters by Majed Fakhri, George Sabra, and Jad Hatem)

Publications: Other

"The Christians of Lebanon and the Arab Spring"

(Co-authored with Michael Abi Semaan)

in Nasrallah T. and Parker S. (ed.) Middle East Minorities and the Arab Spring: Identity and Community in the Twenty-First Century.

New Jersey: Gorgias Press, 2017. Pp. 203-226.

"A Lebanese Role at the UN: Chales Malik"

in Yahchouci, G.,(ed.) A Quest for Peace: A Decade of Politics in the Middle East. Proceedings of Selected Conference Papers 2006-2016

Kaslik: USEK, 2016. Pp 93-102.

"Charles Malik Archives at NDU"

In NDU Spirit Issue 68 (December 2016). Pp. 103-114

"Charles Malik und die Universalität der Menschenrechte" in Dhoub, S., (ed.), Kultur, Identität, Menschenrechte. Transkulturelle Perspektiven. Weilerwist: Velbrück, 2012. Pp 314-332.

"Tears of Sadness and Joy: My Last Visit to Father Luke Ramzi Malik"

in First Memorial of Fr. Luke Malik

Baabdath: Jesus Community, 200. Pp 19-23.

"كنيسة الإسلام"

In IBID, Pp. 46-51

Conference Papers et al

An International Conference on the Philosophy of Ameen Rihani

AUB's Anis Makdisi Program in Literature and NDU's Institute of Lebanese Thought (ILT)

Translated some texts and helped in organization and the publication of the Proceedings.

November 2016.

Charles Malik the Philosopher: Reflections on Process and Impact

An International Symposium of NDU's Institute of Lebanese Thought (ILT) in association with AUB's Anis Makdisi Program in Literature and NDU's Benedict XVI Endowed Chair of Religious, Cultural, and Philosophical Studies.

I was the main coordinator of this symposium, and I presented a paper. March 2016.

Culture, identite et droits de l'homme: vers une perspective transculturelle Argumentaire

The conference was the first gathering of philosophers in post-revolution Tunis, and was held, symbolically, in the room where Michel Foucault had delivered his three lectures in the 1960s. This 2011 conference was sponsored by Germany's DAAD, University of Kassel, and the UNESCO chair of Philosophy, and hosted some 30 scholars, mostly German and Arab philosophers. I presented a paper there.

Tunis.

October 2011

Middle East Conference VII

*An international conference in the Middle East held in Mansuriyeh’s Baptist theological center. I presented a paper.
June 2010.*

Danish Youth Council

*Conference on Arab Youth Empowerment and Democratization. I presented a paper.
Copenhagen.
August 2000.*

“The Stalae of Nahr el Kalb”

*Lecture in Study Abroad In Lebanon (SAIL/WSF) -Nigeria
A Program of NDU’s Benedict XVI Endowed Chair of Religious, Cultural, and Philosophical Studies in collaboration with The Cedars Institute and The Wole Soyinka
Foundation in Nigeria
September2017*

“Researching 1958 Lebanon”

Public Lecture at SOAS; Feb. 2009

“A History of Ecclesiastical Schisms”

Public Lecture at AUB; May 2004

Member

Father Michael Harper Foundation

Associate; Cambridge: 2011-present

Infant’s Welfare Charity Society

Board Member; Zahleh: 2007-present

Lebanese Order of Engineers and Architects (Syndicate)

Beirut; 2000-present

Founding Member of Saint Joseph School Alumni Association & Member of its First Administrative Board

Cornet Chehwan 1994-97

Awards

Nicholas Ziadeh Scholarship for Historical Studies

AUB 2001

Architecture Thesis: First Among Peers

LAU 2000