

“Philosophy and Religion as a ‘Way of Life’”

Seminars and panels on November 16-23, 2015

Organized by

The Benedict XVI Endowed Chair of Religious, Cultural, & Philosophical Studies at NDU and the Council for Research in Values & Philosophy

In collaboration with

The Anis Makdisi Program in Literature and the Center for Arab & Middle Eastern Studies at AUB

In association with

Al-Mustafa International University of Mashhad and The Cedars Institute

The AMPL-CAMES session at AUB

Thursday, November 19, 2015
(West Hall, Auditorium A)

- 10:30-11:15 “Authenticity of the Intellect and its Frontiers”
Mohamed Ayman Abdel Khalek [a.k.a. Ayman-Almesry] (Al-Mustafa International University of Qom)
- 11:15-11:45 Discussion
- 11:45-12:00 Coffee Break
- 12:00-12:30 “What do we Know?”
Vahid Mahdavi Mehr (Al-Mustafa International University of Mashhad, and Universität Paderborn)
- 12:30-1:00 Discussion

*Other seminars/panels will be announced via NDU and the Cedars Institute
November 16-23, 2015*