Dear Dr Fostok

On behalf of the Editorial Board for The Journal of Mammary Gland Biology and Neoplasia, I am thrilled to inform you that your paper was selected for the Journal's new award of outstanding publication submitted by a trainee for 2018.

Thank you for applying for this recognition and for publishing in the Journal. The Springer-Nature publishing staff will be in touch regarding the complimentary one-year subscription to the Journal that accompanies this award.

Congratulations again. Your accomplishment will also be announced and recognized at the upcoming Gordon Conference on Mammary Gland Biology in Maine.

Sincerely

Russ Hovey, PhD
Editor-in-Chief
