

GPHP VALUES

Our teaching, research, and service are guided by core values. These values derive from our context as a school of public health in a developing world setting and from basic principles of professional conduct and human rights.

/CRITICAL THINKING

We are committed to cultivating critical thinking that allows us and our graduates to question reality and tackle the root causes of health problems.

/EQUALITY & SOCIAL JUSTICE

We believe in equality among people and act to enhance health equity by focusing on underserved communities, and working for social justice.

/CIVIC RESPONSIBILITY

We believe that each of us has a role to play in advancing knowledge and improving health, and we work to instill a sense of civic responsibility.

/RELEVANCE

We focus our efforts on our region of the world to bring to light local/regional health issues and to enhance our relevance.

/INTEGRITY & PROFESSIONAL ETHICS

Our work is reinforced by our commitment to integrity and professional ethics.

/TEAMWORK, ENGAGEMENT & PARTNERSHIPS

Recognizing the complexity of health, we value teamwork, interdisciplinary engagement, and partnerships with stakeholders.

/INTEGRATION

We believe in integrating our instruction, research, and service to bring theory and practice together for maximum impact.

/DIVERSITY

We believe that diversity in our faculty and students and in our practice sites enhances our ability to understand the perspectives and the circumstances that influence health, and thus create change.

/EXCELLENCE

We are committed to excellence in all that we do, and believe our faculty and alumni provide leadership and vision to improve the health of people and communities.
