

MISSION STATEMENT OF THE NEW PROFESSOR & CHAIRMAN OF THE DEPARTMENT OF ANESTHESIOLOGY

Establish standards of excellence in focused areas and a high level competence in all areas related to our missions of patient care, education, and research.

Provide high quality, compassionate anesthesia care, intensive care, and pain management for our patients regardless of their disease, age, gender, race, or socioeconomic status.

Educate medical students, residents, fellows, our professional colleagues and the general public, using proven traditional and innovative educational formats, transferring knowledge and technical skills, while serving as appropriate role models for the next generation.

Develop excellence in highly focused areas of basic science linked with translational clinical science and outcomes research relevant to our specialty while encouraging and supporting innovations in patient care.

Serve as a model in developing effective paradigm shifts in process for success in clinical, teaching and research endeavors for Lebanon and the region.
