

Dr. Khoury is a clinical psychologist in private practice since 2006, and at BALSAM (Lebanese Palliative Care NGO) since 2012, and at Nawfal Clinics (a private polyclinic) since 2016.

He worked at AUB (American University of Beirut) as a Lecturer for 10 years at the Faculty of Health Sciences, and for 5 years as a counselor for scholarship students.

Dr. Khoury has been actively engaged with the local, regional and international community, mostly giving trainings to improve mental health care.

He has contributed extensively to national and international psychosocial and mental health manuals and to book chapters on Arab mental health and social inclusion and exclusion.