

Nour Al-Faqeer, PharmD, BCOP

Nour Al-Faqeer is an Oncology Clinical Pharmacy Specialist at King Hussein Cancer Center (KHCC) in Amman, Jordan. She received her Pharm.D degree from Jordan University of Science and Technology in Jordan. She is a board certified pharmacist in oncology. She has extensive experience as clinical pharmacist in solid tumor and lymphoma services. She currently works as oncology pharmacy specialist in Lymphoma service. She also serves as Residency Program Assistant Director for the PGY1 Pharmacy Residency Program that is accredited by the American Society of Hospital Pharmacist (ASHP). She also precepts PGY1 residents in the medicine and research rotations. Dr. Al-Faqeer is actively involved in patient care, research, and education. She has involved as author and coauthor for numerous peer reviewed original research articles and posters.