

Ola Mashni has been BCPS-certified clinical pharmacy specialist supervising ambulatory chemotherapy services at King Hussein Cancer Center since 2011. She graduated from university of Jordan with a Doctor of Pharmacy degree. Ola is interested in health care quality, clinical research and Immunology; she had healthcare quality diploma and several publications. Currently she is working on machine learning research with KHCC team.