

6. IMPROVEMENT OF QUALITY OF CARE :

Through AUBMC professional staff, and through its associates' campuses scattered all over the world, EMA ensures the development of short or long-term training programs that warrant the professional development and the continuous improvement of staff in the clinical, operational, and management fields. This will reflect in the provision of sustainable safe, effective, patient-centered, timely, efficient, and equitable health care services.

