

Nabila Shehabeddine

Head of Jafet Library Reference & Instruction Services, (AUB), 29 years of service

Soft spoken and demure, Nabila is committed to serving others with the utmost pleasure.

Nabila is described as a repository of knowledge, the behind the scenes engine that enables the Library to become a robust pillar of research and reference in the Middle East. Nabila is behind many, if not most well researched academic papers and publications in AUB. She loves her job and loves to serve her community even more.
