

Short Biography:

Dr. Mohamad Ahmad

Dr Mohammad Ahmad is a professor and the coordinator of the Chemical Engineering Program at the American University Beirut (AUB). Before joining AUB, Dr Ahmad started his career at Queen's University Belfast in 1995 as an Assistant Professor and in 2000 he was promoted to Associate Professor. Dr Ahmad was the Head of Chemical Engineering at Queen's University Belfast. Dr Ahmad has also worked in ICI Fertilizers, Belfast, UK between 1992 and 1995. Dr Ahmad's research areas include: solid waste management; biofuels production from solid waste, production of activated carbons from solid waste; heterogeneous catalysis and simulation and modeling.