

Short Biography

Mr. Nasser Hoteit

Mr. Nasser Hoteit, PhD, is graduated from N. Polytechnic School, HEC-Paris and Grenoble Institute of Technology. He holds a degree in engineering, master's, and doctoral degrees in mechanics from the French Polytechnic University, a certificate as polar engineer from the University of Alaska and a Masters in Business Administration from HEC University in Paris. Mr. Hoteit is a certified petroleum engineer and a member of the World Society of Petroleum Engineers.

He is involved in Energy Industry since 1984. He occupied various positions in International Nuclear and Oil and Gas Companies. His activities covered offshore development fields, geosciences and Gas plants development. From 1984 to 1994, he was involved in R&D and offshore engineering for Petroleum Industry. From 1994 to 2004, he was head of Geosciences Department and involved in extensive geophysical surveys and exploration drilling programs around the world. He was in charge of the supervision of PhD students in Reservoir management discipline. From 2004 to 2013, he was Technical Authority for the development of Gas and LNG plants in several countries. On December 4th, 2012 he was appointed member of Lebanese Petroleum Administration.

Currently, and since December 2013, he is a board member of the Lebanese Petroleum Administration Authority.